JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Jaguars Community Relations Department works as an extension of the team to develop and implement resourceful and valuable programs that contribute directly to the Jacksonville-area community. In addition to these efforts, the Jaguars Foundation also serves as the team's vehicle of change in the city, assisting at-risk youth and families through a variety of programs, including strategic grants. The Jaguars Foundation focuses on support of programs serving economically and socially disadvantaged youth and families in Jacksonville. The Foundation has awarded more than $14 million in grants in the Jacksonville area (Baker, Clay, Duval, Nassau and St. Johns counties) since 1995.

NFL PLAY60

As part of the NFL Play60 program, the Jaguars, in partnership with the Jaguars Foundation, Baptist Health and the American Heart Association Jacksonville chapter, support the NFL PLAY60 program in sixth grade classrooms at selected schools as well as through grants to nonprofits. This awareness program includes a unique curriculum supplement designed to incorporate physical activity in classroom lessons and encourage physical activity to children in and after school.

FOOD DRIVE

Since the team's inception in 1995, the Jaguars have organized an annual holiday food drive each fall in conjunction with the Food Bank of North Florida Second Harvest and Winn-Dixie. Jaguars staff, players and coaches' wives along with players, cheerleaders and the team mascot volunteer to support this community-wide effort, which culminates with a food collection on a game day.

GATORADE JUNIOR TRAINING CAMP

The Jacksonville Jaguars Gatorade Junior Training camp is a free, annual, grass roots program which is offered by the Jaguars for elementary school students between the ages of six and 12. This is a program which features educational benefits along with recreational opportunities that put an emphasis on fun for the day rather than winning and testing skills.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE

For more than 30 years the NFL and the United Way have partnered to help build stronger, healthier communities. Whether it's reaching out to disadvantaged youth or feeding the hungry, both are committed to raising public awareness of important social service issues. Each fall, the Jaguars partner with the United Way of Northeast Florida for a hands-on community service project called Hometown Huddle.

HOSPITAL VISITS

Jaguars players regularly make visits to Wolfson Children's Hospital to meet with kids, sign autographs and lift spirits. In 2008, the Jaguars Den was established at Wolfson Children's Hospital. The Jaguars Den is a one-of-a-kind, state-of-the-art room for children at the hospital where areas are designated for group games, pods for semi-private conversations, and individual computer stations. Stations are equipped with a keyboard and other input devices such as drawing tablets, touch pads and joysticks, all on flexible supports that children can easily adjust for their comfort.

JAGUARS/MORGAN STANLEY COMMUNITY LEADER

Since 2001 the Jaguars and Morgan Stanley have partnered for this annual award presented monthly during the NFL season to the Jaguars player who demonstrates exemplary community involvement. Previous winners include Donovan Darius, Wali Rainer, Joe Zelenka, Ernest Wilford, Maurice Williams, Scott Starks, Alvin Pearman, Mike Peterson, Mercedes Lewis and Russell Allen.

JAGUARS READERS

This is a special reading program at local elementary schools supported by Jaguars front office staff since 1997. Staff members volunteer to spend an hour each week at the school where students read some of their favorite books.

JAGUARS ROOKIE CLUB

In June of 2003 the Jaguars established the Rookie Club for all incoming rookies. Its purpose is to assist in the transition from college to the NFL, and to introduce and involve first-year players, as a group, in charitable and civic activities in the Jacksonville community.

MILITARY VISITS

Jaguars players make visits to the local military bases including the Air National Guard 125th Fighter Wing (Air Force National Guard), Mayport Naval Station and NAS JAX. On these visits players sign autographs and are given behind-the-scenes tours to help them gain an appreciation for the service men and women returning or preparing to deploy overseas.

JAGUARS VISIT WOUNDED WARRIORS

In March of 2012 Blaine Gabbert, Paul Posluszny and Brock Bolen visited the Bethesda Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Md., where they had the opportunity to see firsthand how wounded soldiers rehab after suffering injuries in battle. Gabbert, Posluszny and Bolen signed autographs and took photographs with wounded soldiers.

OPERATION BLESSING

Each holiday season Jaguars players join volunteers from Wells Fargo and Winn-Dixie to off-load truckloads of groceries to be bagged and distributed to disadvantaged families in the Jacksonville-area. Since its inception in 1999, more than 29,000 families have been served.

JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Believing that youth represent the community's future, the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to support programs benefiting economically and socially disadvantaged youth, families and other NFL and team charitable initiatives.

FOUNDATION'S GRANT AWARDS TOP $15.5 MILLION

Under the leadership of new Jaguars owner Shahid Khan and his family, the Jaguars Foundation continues to be a national leader in professional sports philanthropy, providing more than $1 million in grants to local youth-serving nonprofits in 2012 and more than 11,000 charitable tickets with a value of over $450,000.

The Jaguars Foundation awarded its first grants in March of 1995, well before the team played its first game. Total grant making since 1995 is more than $15.5 million. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports.

PROGRAMS:

IMPACT ON EDUCATION: This year, the Foundation and Team have adopted Andrew Jackson High School as a corporate partner, making a significant investment in the students at the school. Through the support of the Jaguars team owners, coaches, players and staff, along with other community and corporate partners, the goal is to return Andrew Jackson High School to its tradition of excellence.

HONOR ROWS®: This unique program uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for youth ages 9 to 17 to set and achieve ambitious but realistic goals in the areas of academic improvement, personal behavior, volunteer community service, and nutrition and physical fitness activities. Honor Rows youth also pledge to remain free from illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco.

At the game, participants receive a meal, Honor Rows t-shirt and hat, and special recognition by the team owners and fans. Nearly 5,000 seats will be awarded in 2012 in partnership with 44 nonprofit agencies. Since, 1995, more than 40,000 youth have earned their seat. The United Way of Northeast Florida mobilizes game-day volunteers who ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of the participants.

In addition to the Honor Rows, the Jaguars Foundation awards seats to other charitable organizations. In total, nearly 11,800 seats are allocated each season for charitable purposes with an in-kind value exceeding $430,000.

NFL/JAGUARS PLAY60 CHALLENGE: In partnership with Baptist Health/Wolfson Children's Hospital, the Jaguars Foundation offers opportunities to increase youth fitness activities and improve nutrition, as part of the NFL's Play 60 Challenge.

More than 3,000 6th grade students in the Duval County Public Schools participate along with hundreds of youth in community non-profits through programs that help youth become more active and improve healthy eating habits. More than $700,000 in fitness and nutrition grants have been made by Baptist Health and the Jaguars Foundation to schools and nonprofit organizations. Additionally, Baptist Health and the Foundation partnered with the Pepsi Refresh program and others, to supporting twelve community and school-based gardens in Northeast Florida.

STRAIGHT TALK™...TEENS AND SUCCESS: STRAIGHT TALK...Teens & Success is a unique partnership with Florida Blue, local media, including all of the local television networks and nonprofit organizations. STRAIGHT TALK...Teens & Success helps teens focus on setting and achieving their goals to success and dealing with issues such as cyber-bullying, teen pregnancy, drugs, alcohol and tobacco that are obstacles to success. Local media and the Foundation collaborate to produce an annual prime time television show. The 2012 show featured Jaguars players Derek Cox and Rashad Jennings and Sam from the ROAR of the Jaguars Cheerleaders as co-hosts, medical and legal experts and resources for teens and parents. The show and other information can be accessed year-round on the website: straighttalkjacksonville.com created in partnership with The Florida Times-Union and jacksonville.com.

SUPPORT FOR OUR MILITARY: The NFL and the Jaguars have had a long history of strong support for our troops and their families. Since the inaugural season in 1995, the Jaguars, in partnership with the Greater Jacksonville USO, have made available more than 1,000 tickets to active military at a reduced price for every home game.

HONORING OUR TROOPS: The largest block of donated tickets for active military families is in the Foundation's "HONORING OUR TROOPS" section. In partnership with the Greater Jacksonville USO, area US Navy bases, other military branches and guard/reserve units, the Foundation provides more than 100 tickets each home game to local families with children who have a parent on deployment. Complimentary bus transportation, t-shirts and Jag Dollars for meals or souvenirs for the kids are provided.

SUPPORT FOR VETERANS RETURNING HOME: In partnership with the City of Jacksonville, the Khan family and the Jaguars have made a $1 million commitment over five years to support transition services for veterans returning to civilian life in Jacksonville.

ANTI-TOBACCO INITIATIVE: The team and the Foundation have taken a nationally recognized leadership position in the local and professional sports community against youth tobacco use. The signature "Jaguars Don't Smoke" logo, showing a vibrant Jaguar squashing a pack of cigarettes under its paw, appears on various venues. The Jaguars set an exceptional precedent as the first team in the NFL to have tobacco advertising removed from their game-day program, since followed by the entire league.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: In 2011, the Jaguars Foundation received the HOPE Worldwide Faith in Action Award. In 2010, the Jaguars Foundation was recognized by the Girl Scouts at the Association of Fundraising Professionals—Florida First Coast Chapter. The Jaguars Foundation was the proud recipient of the 2006 Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award from The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Sports Philanthropy Project for outstanding leadership in philanthropy in professional sports, both for the Foundation's work in Jacksonville and its leadership in guiding other professional teams in the development of grant making and other programs in their local markets. The Foundation's Straight Talk program received the 2005 Wilmer Shields Rich Bronze Award for Excellence in Communications by the Council on Foundations. In 2003, the Jaguars Foundation was named Jacksonville's Outstanding Foundation by the Association of Fundraising Professionals—Florida First Coast Chapter, and also received the Governor's Community Investment Award in recognition of its juvenile justice crime and youth violence prevention programs for youth. Other awards include: Florida Department of Education's Commissioner's Business Recognition Award (2001); Bridge Builder Award (1997); WTLV-12 Top of the Class Award (1996) for Playbooks; Governor's Community Investment Award (1996) for Honor Rows, and Grantmakers in Health Award (1996 and 1995). The Jaguars Foundation's innovative programs have been recognized in national media, including the January/February 2005 issue of FOUNDATION News and Commentary, as well as in articles in The New York Times, Forbes Magazine, Grantmanship Center Magazine, St. Anthony Messenger, ESPN and the "Osgood File" radio program.

SHAHID KHAN
OWNER

On January 4, 2012, Shahid Khan became the owner of the Jacksonville Jaguars. His dream of owning an NFL team had become reality on December 14, 2011, in a unanimous 32-0 vote by NFL owners in support of his purchase of the franchise from Wayne Weaver, who called Khan "an all-American story."

A magnate in the automotive parts industry, Khan was familiar with Jacksonville long before purchasing the team. Jacksonville's port at one time was the United States' largest for automobile shipments, and Khan's fledgling business brought him to Jacksonville's Blount Island terminal to install his patented bumpers on the import vehicles.

Khan's passion for the National Football League also took root long before his entry into the league. His dream of one day owning an NFL team began while watching games with his fraternity brothers in the basement of the Beta Theta Pi house as a student at the University of Illinois. Through the success of his own business, his dream came true 40 years later.

Khan is president and owner of Flex-N-Gate Corporation, the 14th-largest North American automotive supplier, which employs over 13,000 people at 48 manufacturing and nine product development and engineering facilities throughout Canada, the United States, Mexico, Argentina and Spain. Flex-N-Gate's products include interior and exterior plastics, lighting systems, mechanical assemblies, metal structural body components and exterior metal parts.

Khan's history with Flex-N-Gate started in 1970, when he began working at the company while he was an engineering student at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. A naturalized U.S. citizen, Mr. Khan came from his native Pakistan in 1967 at the age of 16 to attend college. When he graduated in 1971, with a B.S. in industrial engineering, he became Flex-N-Gate's engineering manager. In 1978, Khan left Flex-N-Gate and with $13,000 in savings and a $50,000 loan from the Small Business Loan Corporation, he created the start-up Bumper Works, which revolutionized the industry through an innovative one-piece bumper design—a lightweight, continuous piece of metal with no seams to rust or corrode. His innovative design is still considered the industry standard for all seamless steel bumpers worldwide.

Bumper Works embodied two of Mr. Khan's many strengths—a deep understanding of design and a strong entrepreneurial streak. When Flex-N-Gate came on the market two short years later, Khan purchased his former employer and brought Bumper Works into the fold. During the decade that followed, Flex-N-Gate transitioned from an aftermarket parts producer to an Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM). Needing to expand his client base, Khan made sales calls for over five years to all the Japanese auto manufacturers, who, at the time, were more open to new ideas and working with smaller suppliers. This dogged determination resulted in Flex-N-Gate acquiring contracts for all the Japanese-produced trucks imported into the U.S. By the late 1980s Toyota had selected the Bumper Works facility to be the first American parts supplier to receive Toyota's lean manufacturing training—an event Khan identifies as having a profound effect on Flex-N-Gate's ability to grow and prosper.

Widely recognized for his vision, acumen and leadership, Khan has grown Flex-N-Gate both horizontally and vertically through integration of processes and commodities. From the company's modest beginning with only the ability to stamp and weld the bumper shell, Flex-N-Gate has continually expanded to bring all the necessary processes in-house. This carefully planned expansion reduced costs and improved control, consistently making Flex-N-Gate more competitive in the industry. By leveraging what he learned working directly with automotive customers, Khan grew the company by purchasing other OEM facilities, expanding into different commodity types and broadening his client base.

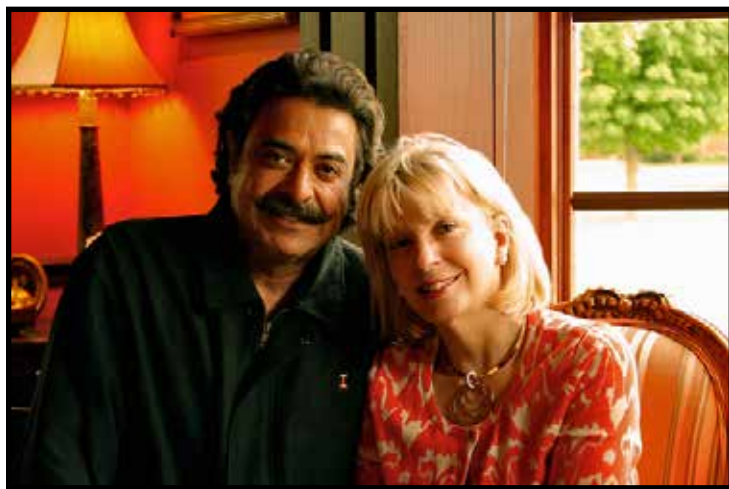

Today, Flex-N-Gate has a global footprint reaching from Canada to Argentina and from the United States into Europe and Asia. Flex-N-Gate's manufacturing base has expanded from steel bumpers to include interior and exterior plastics, lighting systems, mechanical assemblies, metal structural body components and exterior metal parts. The company's clients include all of the major automotive manufacturers in North America, Japan and Europe. In 2007 Mr. Khan received the Minority Business Leadership Award from the National Minority Supplier Development Council and Automotive News ranked Flex-N-Gate the 14th largest North American automotive supplier for 2010. When asked about Flex-N-Gate's remarkable success, Khan is quick to humbly note that he is proof that the American dream is still alive and attainable.

In addition to success in the automotive arena, Khan has expanded on his interests in biofuels and structural engineering. With Bio-Alternative, LLC, Khan has brought together a team of industry leaders around the philosophy of biodiesel being an efficient, affordable and sustainable energy alternative that should be widely and easily accessible. From refinery construction and catalyst sales, to site planning and business consultation, Bio-Alternative continually engages in extensive and ongoing research and development initiatives that ensure the company is always taking the next step in energy to provide customers with the tools necessary to maximize the benefits and values of biodiesel.

Shad Khan's deep interest in developing engineering solutions to global infrastructure problems led him to start Smart Structures, which advances the technology of bridge monitoring, also known as structural health monitoring (SHM). The primary objective of a successful SHM program is to save or defer money for a bridge owner by using technology to assist in their bridge maintenance programs. Smart Structures has emerged as a technical leader in providing cost-effective bridge management packages.

Mr. Khan's leadership extends deeply into his community, service and charitable endeavors. He has served as an active member on many University of Illinois boards, including the Engineering Board of Visitors; Department of Mechanical and Industrial Engineering Alumni Board; MechSE Extern Program; University of Illinois Foundation Board of Directors; and the Presidents Council, and was inducted into the Engineering at Illinois Hall of Fame in 2010. Mr. Khan is the current president of the Chief Executives Organization, a global community of the top 2,000 leaders in the business, government, and non-profit sectors.

Along with his wife, fellow University of Illinois alum Ann Carlson Khan, the Khans' gifts to the University of Illinois have enriched the university and community through donations to the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, the University Library; the College of Business; and the College of Applied Health Sciences, where they have funded five endowed Khan Professorships and the Khan Annex—a 24,000 square foot facility with state-of-the-art laboratories, instructional and professional collaboration spaces. The Khan Outdoor Tennis Complex on the University of Illinois campus will host the 2013 NCAA Men's and Women's Tennis Championships.

The Khans' philanthropic nature extends far beyond their alma mater. In 2007 the Khan Foundation was formed to expand research in the Applied Health Sciences, with Mrs. Khan serving as the foundation's president. Since its inception, the foundation has given out more than five million dollars in grants nationwide—to libraries; organizations such as Crisis Nursery, the YMCA and PBS; and to UCLA for pediatric non-embryonic stem cell research. In 2011 Mr. Khan became a Lincoln Laureate, the state's highest award for achievement given by the Lincoln Academy of Illinois, for his philanthropic work in the state.

Mr. Khan shares his passion for the American dream with his family. The Khans have passed on their commitment to work and service to their two grown children, Shanna and Tony Khan. Shanna works in the office of the U.S. Congressman Tim Johnson and Tony was the manager of Bio-Alternatives and is the Senior Vice President, Football Technology and Analytics for the Jaguars.

MARK LAMPING
PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named President of the Jacksonville Jaguars on February 13, 2012. A veteran of more than 20 years as an executive in professional sports, Lamping became the Jaguars' first president since the end of the 1996 season. His professional career includes experience as a marketing executive with Anheuser-Busch, serving as Commissioner of the Continental Basketball Association, 14 seasons as president of Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals and the past four years as CEO of New Meadowlands Stadium Company where he ran MetLife Stadium. The Giants 2012 Super Bowl victory enabled Lamping to become one of the few sports executives to have received both a Super Bowl ring and World Series Championship ring. Lamping earned his World Series ring as president of the St. Louis Cardinals following their 2006 championship season.

Lamping previously was named President and CEO of the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, LLC on April 1, 2008. The New Meadowlands Stadium Company is the joint venture formed between the NFL New York Giants and the New York Jets to develop and operate the new $1.6 billion stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Lamping was responsible for managing the development, construction and operation of MetLife Stadium, which opened in April 2010. MetLife Stadium is the only NFL stadium which is the home of two NFL teams. In addition to the minimum of 20 NFL games that are played each season, the stadium hosts events ranging from college football to international soccer tournaments to major concerts and more. In addition to numerous awards, in both 2010 and 2011, Billboard magazine named MetLife Stadium as the highest grossing stadium in North America. Lamping also helped lead the successful bid to host the 2014 Super Bowl. The 2014 Super Bowl will be the first Super Bowl played in an open air stadium in a cold weather city.

Prior to joining the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, Lamping was the President of the St. Louis Cardinals from September 1, 1994 until March 31, 2008. In addition to the club's 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2005 Central Division titles and 2004 National League Championship, the Cardinals earned their 10th World Championship in 2006. In 1999 and again in 2003, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable. In addition to managing the club's business and facility operations, Lamping led the Cardinals' new ballpark initiative. On April 10, 2006, Opening Day, the Cardinals officially dedicated the new privately financed ballpark, Busch Stadium. The perfect ending to the inaugural season at new Busch Stadium was the Cardinals winning their 10th World Championship.

In February 1994, Lamping was appointed Commissioner of the Continental Basketball Association. Prior to that Lamping served as Anheuser-Busch's Group Director of Sports Marketing for five years. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division and all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the FIFA World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981 in the company's Corporate Planning Executive Development Program. He then served in a variety of positions including District Sales Manager in Southern Illinois and Central Iowa, Senior Brand Manager for New Products and Director of Sales Operations before being named Group Director of Sports Marketing in 1989.

Lamping currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Jacksonville, Inc. While in St. Louis, Lamping was involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including Board of Directors, Habitat for Humanity; Board of Directors, St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; Chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998, and 1999; Chairman of the St. Louis Archdiocese Catholic Charities 2000 and 2001 Christmas Appeal, and he also served as a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

In 1998, Lamping was honored as Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources and received the James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area. In addition Lamping was the recipient of the Catholic Youth Council 2000 Community Achievement Award and the 2001 Marianist Youth Medal in recognition of his support of youth throughout the St. Louis area. Big Brothers and Big Sisters of St. Louis honored Lamping with its 2001 Legacy Award. In 2006 Lamping was presented the Gateway Leadership Award from the International Leadership Network. Lamping has been inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame and was named 2000 Alumnus of the Year for outstanding achievement by Rockhurst University.

A St. Louis native, Lamping holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Rockhurst University in Kansas City, Missouri and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. Mark and his wife Cheryl have three children; Brian, Lauren, and Timothy.

BILL PRESCOTT
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Bill Prescott is the Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer for the Jaguars. Prescott oversees the financial and accounting operations, information technology and the stadium lease for the team. Prescott is also the Jaguars' point person with the NFL on financial and business matters as they relate to the league. He has also been working closely with NFL International on plans for the Jaguars playing a home game in London.

Prescott is also responsible for the financial operation of the Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation, and works with the Foundation on its education initiatives. He has been involved with the Jaguars since their inception. Previously Prescott oversaw the design and construction of the $63 million renovation of EverBank Field. All of the renovations were completed in time for Super Bowl XXXIX, which was played on February 6, 2005.

A native of the Bronx, N.Y., Prescott is a graduate of Pace University with a degree in accounting and a master's degree in taxation. He is a member of the executive board and vice chair of Visit Jacksonville, a member of the Board of Directors of Downtown Vision, Inc., a member of the Board of Governors of the Jacksonville Regional Chamber of Commerce, and former chairman for the Mohawk District of the Boy Scouts of North Florida, an urban scouting program serving the at-risk youth of Jacksonville. Prescott was born May 7, 1956. He has two sons, Christopher and Michael and a step-daughter Nikki. He and his wife, Kim, live in Ponte Vedra Beach.

TEAM TEAL

Team Teal was born in January of 2010 as part of an aggressive civic initiative to help sell out Jaguars home games so they could be televised locally, and to solidify the future of the franchise in Jacksonville. Under the direction of Mayor John Peyton and former Florida Times-Union publisher Carl Cannon, this initiative grew out of the Touchdown Jacksonville: Revive the Pride effort. With former Jaguars star Tony Boselli and business leader Ed Burr also spearheading the effort, Team Teal was launched. Team Teal rallies took place throughout the First Coast area throughout the offseason, and regular meetings were held with Team Teal captains as this grassroots effort grew. Largely as a result of Team Teal efforts, more than 12,000 new season tickets were sold in 2010 while the team saw a renewal rate of 90% by season ticket holders. Among the popular new offerings were the 30/30 Plan, which allowed for a three-year season ticket to be purchased and paid for over 30 months, and Teal Deals, a coupon book featuring area merchants with a total value of more than $2,000.

DAN EDWARDS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Dan Edwards, the Jaguars' senior vice president, communications, is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the Jaguars' communications division, which includes media relations, community relations, digital media, publications and broadcasting. He is in his 29th season in the NFL and his 19th year with the Jaguars.

Joining the Jaguars on May 4, 1994 from the Pittsburgh Steelers, Edwards had ten previous seasons of NFL experience with the Steelers, the Miami Dolphins and the league office. He was promoted to vice president in 2003, when the Jaguars' community relations and Internet content departments were added to his responsibilities. He is one of just 10 current Jaguars staff members who have been with the franchise for 18 years, beginning in 1994.

Edwards received a scholarship from NFL Charities in 1984 and began his NFL career that year as a public relations intern in the NFL office in New York. He spent the 1984 football season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year, before joining the Steelers in 1985.

During his nine years with the Steelers, the last seven as public relations director (1987-93), the team's public relations staff received the 1991 Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America. Edwards has worked for the NFL at 22 Super Bowls in addition to the 1990 Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball as an administrative assistant with the Eugene (Ore.) Emeralds, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon.

Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration with a major in management from the University of Oregon in 1981, and a master's degree in sports administration/facility management from Ohio University in 1984. In 2004 he attended the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at Stanford University, and for the past five years has served as an adjunct professor in sport communication at the University of North Florida.

Edwards serves on the board of directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida as well as the community advisory board for Haven Hospice, and he is a member of the Leadership Jacksonville class of 2009. He and his wife Tricia have four children: sons Christian and Preston and daughters Danielle and Victoria.

MACKY WEAVER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, SALES

Macky Weaver has been a Jaguars senior vice president since April of 2010. His responsibilities encompass all ticket sales activities, including premium products, general bowl tickets, and suites seating. He also oversees all ticket marketing and customer service efforts.

Prior to his current role, Weaver served as executive director of corporate sponsorship. He was responsible for the sales and service of all sponsor and media inventory associated with the Jaguars and EverBank Field. Weaver originally joined the Jaguars on May 15, 1994 as an account executive in corporate sponsorship. He was promoted to director of corporate sponsorship in December of 1997 and to executive director in 2004.

Weaver is one of just 10 current Jaguars staff members who joined the franchise in 1994. He was born May 21, 1965 in Atlanta and moved to Jacksonville in 1976. Weaver attended the University of Georgia and graduated with a degree in economics in 1987. Weaver is a Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce Board member, co-chairman of the #lovejax initiative within the Chamber, a member of the Rotary Club of Deerwood, and American Lung Association Board immediate past President. He and wife Reppard have two sons, Jimmy (15) and Evans (13).

HUSSAIN NAQI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FAN EXPERIENCE

Hussain Naqi was named the Jaguars' Senior Vice President, Fan Experience on May 14, 2012. He arrived in Jacksonville following four years with New Meadowlands Stadium Company in East Rutherford, N.J., where he served as Vice President of Business Planning and General Counsel at MetLife Stadium.

Naqi had many duties at MetLife Stadium, including oversight of all strategic initiatives. In that capacity, he administered the Stadium's concessions, merchandise and parking agreements. He was also involved in formulating the stadium's traffic and parking plan, as well as general oversight of all legal affairs. Naqi helped negotiate the naming rights agreement for MetLife Stadium, and played a leading role in securing the historic and successful bid for the Super Bowl in 2014.

Naqi is a veteran of the National Football League, Major League Baseball and the NCAA. He began his career in 1997 with the law firm of Covington and Burling in Washington, D.C., which led to a four-year stint in the NFL office as a paralegal and a player personnel analyst.

In 2002, Naqi was named Assistant Director of Enforcement for the NCAA before he returned to school to complete a joint Juris Doctor and Master's of Business Administration degree at Northwestern University. While at Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management, he developed a continuing education program for current and former NFL players to provide them with business skills during and after their playing careers.

In 2006, Naqi joined the Executive Development Program with Major League Baseball and the New York Mets, serving two years in that capacity.

Naqi attended Cornell University, earning his bachelor's degree in Industrial and Labor Relations in 1997. He is a member of the New York State Bar.

SCOTT MASSEY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Scott Massey, the Jaguars' Senior Vice President, Corporate Partnerships, joined the organization on May 29, 2012. For the previous seven years Massey served as Vice President, Business Development/Title Sponsor Relations for the PGA TOUR.

During a nine-year career with the PGA TOUR, Massey oversaw over 15 of the TOUR's title sponsor relationships, ranging from automotive to financial and insurance services to consumer products and others. Prior to this role, Massey managed several of the PGA TOUR's largest Official Marketing Partnerships.

Prior to joining the PGA TOUR, Massey held sales and marketing roles with several sports related companies including International Management Group (IMG), golfweb.com and Quokka Sports.

Massey grew up in Boulder, CO and is a graduate of the University of Colorado, earning his bachelor's degree in finance in 1987. He and his wife Nancy have two sons, Hanks and Davis.

SASHI BROWN

GENERAL COUNSEL

Sashi Brown joined the Jaguars prior to the 2005 NFL season. Now in his seventh season with the Jaguars, Brown advises the franchise in a variety of legal and business matters. His responsibilities include contract negotiation, employment matters, insurance and risk management, intellectual property and licensing issues and litigation management.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Brown was an attorney with Wilmer, Cutler, Pickering, Hale and Dorr, a private law firm based in Washington, D.C. As a member of the firm's corporate law practice group, Brown advised companies in a variety of business transactions.

Brown earned an undergraduate degree from Hampton University in 1998 and a juris doctorate degree from Harvard Law School in 2002. Brown is a member of the New York, District of Columbia and Florida bars.

In addition to his duties with the Jaguars, Brown serves as a member of the Board of Directors and Chairman of the Section 8 Subcommittee to the Jacksonville Housing Authority. Brown resides in Jacksonville with his wife Paige. He is a native of Boston, Massachusetts, where he was born on May 15, 1976.

PETER RACINE

PRESIDENT, JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Peter Racine oversees grantmaking and other programs for the Jaguars Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the team. Racine began his career in nonprofit work as a college volunteer at Covenant House's homeless and runaway youth shelter in New York City and went on to help begin Covenant House's programs in Houston, Texas and Toronto, Canada. From 1987 to 1992, he and his spouse Kelly established Covenant House's programs for Honduran street children in Honduras, Central America where he served as Executive Director. He was featured on Dateline-NBC for his work with young glue addicts and in Time Magazine for work on behalf of minors exploited by prostitution rings. Prior to joining the Jaguars Foundation in September of 2000, Racine was Executive Director of the Northeast Florida Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse.

Racine has been a partner in various national and international initiatives, including The Community Partnership for Protecting Children with the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation; Early Childhood Violence Prevention Project with the U. S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention; Outreach to Urban Street Children with the European Economic Community; the Sports Philanthropy Project with The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; and Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC)-Jacksonville's Neighborhood Revitalization Initiative with The Community Foundation, Jessie Ball duPont Fund and City of Jacksonville.

Racine received his B.A. at Rutgers University in New Jersey, and his M.T.S. at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He, his spouse Kelly and daughter Miriam reside in Jacksonville.

BRUCE SWINDELL

VICE PRESIDENT, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

As Vice President, Information Technology, Bruce Swindell is responsible for the development, procurement, implementation and management of computer-related technology and training within the Jaguars organization. This support extends to all facets of the business, and includes database and application development and support, network administration, help desk support and hardware maintenance.

Swindell joined the Jaguars on November 29, 1994, following 21 years of service in the U.S. Navy. During his Naval career, he served in various locations throughout the United States and the world, including Iceland, Puerto Rico and the British Indian Ocean Territories. He is one of just 10 current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994.

Swindell was born December 1, 1954 in Woodbury, N.J., and received a degree in business administration from Limestone College in Gaffney, S.C. He and his wife, Jane, have a son, Wade, a daughter, Erica, and three grandchildren.

TIM BISHKO

DIRECTOR, TICKET OPERATIONS & SERVICE

Timothy Bishko has been the director of ticket operations for the Jaguars since 2000. He is responsible for ticket operations and ticket distribution. Bishko joined the Jaguars in September 1994 as a ticket specialist, and he worked his way up the ranks to his current position. He is one of 10 staff members who joined the franchise in 1994. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was an intern in the athletic department at Jacksonville University.

He received an associate degree in sports administration from Becker College in 1991 and a bachelor's degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in 1994. He was born November 3, 1971 in Hadley, Mass. Bishko is single and lives in Jacksonville.

RYAN ROBINSON

DIRECTOR, PUBLIC RELATIONS

Ryan Robinson is in his eighth season with the Jaguars, his 11th in the NFL, and his first as Director of Public Relations. Robinson previously served as Communications Manager from 2005-11.

Before joining the Jaguars, Robinson spent four years as the Executive Director for the PeyBack Foundation (2001-05) in Indianapolis, Indiana. Prior to that, he spent three years as the Assistant Director of Public Relations for the Indianapolis Colts (1999-2001) and also worked at Jarrard-Ingram Public Relations as an Account Executive and as a Media Relations Assistant in the University of Kentucky Athletics Department. His professional experience also includes internships with ESPN X Games, Minnesota Vikings and the Colts.

A native of Ashland, Kentucky, Robinson received a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Kentucky in 1998. He is single and resides in Jacksonville.

KURT WISENBAUGH

DIRECTOR, GAME PRESENTATION/EVENT PRODUCTION

Kurt Wisenbaugh was promoted to Director, Game Presentation and Event Production in 2012. Now in his sixth year with the Jaguars, he is responsible for all game presentation, event production and fan interactive areas, as well as the mascot, cheerleader and drumline programs. He also oversees the Team Teal program. Wisenbaugh served as Manager, Events and Game Production in 2011 and Coordinator, Events and Game Production from 2006 through 2010.

Wisenbaugh joined the Jaguars in 2006 after interning with the Florida State University Sports Information Department, NFL Players Association, Jaguars Communications Department, and Miami Dolphins Events and Broadcasting Department.

He received a degree in sport management with a minor in business from Florida State University in 2004 and an MBA from Nova Southeastern University in 2009. Wisenbaugh resides in Jacksonville with his wife, Danielle. Prior to graduating from Florida State, Wisenbaugh lived in Tulsa, OK, Johannesburg, South Africa, Lexington, KY, and Philadelphia, PA. He was born on August 31, 1982.

NICOLA DRAKE

DIRECTOR, GUEST SERVICES

Nicola Drake was named Director, Guest Services for the Jaguars in May 2012. With her recent promotion, Nicola oversees all of the Jaguars guest services initiatives, including the game day service plans and performance of our stadium partners. Through utilization of the "Seven Points of Touchdown Service" – the service philosophy created by the Guest Services Team in 2010 – she is tasked to uphold the mission of providing a safe and enjoyable environment for all fans that enter the stadium. The Guest Services Team is made up of the various stadium partners and includes SMG (facility manager), CSC (stadium security), S.A.F.E. (ushers and ticket takers), Ovations Food Services, Levy Restaurants, and Gameday Merchandising.

Drake began her 10-year tenure with the team as a Fan Services Executive in the ticket office and has served the organization in several capacities since that time. She worked as an Account Coordinator in the Corporate Sponsorship department and then moved back to the ticket office to serve as the Fan Services Manager before being promoted to Senior Manager of Fan Services and Ticket Operations.

Drake received her Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing in 2001 and her Masters of Science degree in Sport Management in 2002, both from the Florida State University. She lives in Jacksonville with her husband and daughter.

MIKE MULARKEY
HEAD COACH

NFL: 28TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Mike Mularkey was named head coach of the Jaguars on January 11, 2012. Mularkey has 18 years of NFL coaching experience including two seasons as a head coach and eight as an offensive coordinator. In five of the eight seasons he was a coordinator Mularkey's team went to the playoffs. Prior to Jacksonville, his previous coaching stops were at Tampa Bay, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Miami and Atlanta. Mularkey is the fourth head coach in Jaguars history, including Mel Tucker who served as interim head coach for the final five games of the 2011 season.

A veteran of 27 years in the NFL, Mularkey played nine seasons as a tight end for the Minnesota Vikings and Pittsburgh Steelers. The Ft. Lauderdale, Florida native attended the University of Florida, where he played tight end before being drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in 1983.

Including his rookie preseason with the 49ers, Mularkey spent his career playing for three of the NFL's legendary coaches in Bill Walsh, Bud Grant and Chuck Noll. As an assistant coach Mularkey has served on the staffs of Sam Wyche, Bill Cowher, Nick Saban, Cam Cameron and Mike Smith.

Mularkey, 50, spent the past four seasons (2008-11) as offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons, a team that advanced to the postseason in three of those four seasons. The Falcons produced a 43-21 mark in Mularkey's tenure, the fifth-best record in the NFL. Over the four seasons the Falcons offense ranked ninth in total yards (354.8 per game) in the NFL, seventh in points (24.5), eighth in rushing yards (125.7), third in fewest turnovers (84), fourth in fewest sacks allowed (93) and sixth in third down conversions (44.2). The Falcons produced the top two single-season totals in team history for yards per game during Mularkey's tenure (2008, 2011).

In three of the four seasons under Mularkey, the Falcons offense produced a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same year. Under Mularkey's tutelage since 2008, quarterback Matt Ryan ranked seventh in passing yards (14,238) and sixth in touchdown passes (95), and had the league's fifth-lowest interception percentage (2.3). Ryan has thrown for 29 and 28 touchdown passes the last two seasons, two of the four highest marks in team history. Only Joe Flacco (44) produced more wins than Ryan (43) in his first four seasons as a starter in NFL history.

During Mularkey's tenure wide receiver Roddy White posted an NFL-best 5,220 receiving yards and ranked second with 388 receptions. White led the NFL in 2010 with a franchise-record 110 receptions. Running back Michael Turner rushed for the third-most yards per game (89.5 avg.) and the second-most touchdowns (50) during that span. Turner is one of only two running backs in the NFL to rush for 5,000 yards and 50 touchdowns since 2008. After joining the Falcons in 2009, veteran tight end Tony Gonzalez caught 19 touchdown passes and recorded 233 receptions in three seasons.

The Falcons made their second consecutive postseason appearance in 2011, marking the first time in team history the Falcons qualified for the postseason in back-to-back seasons. The 2011 season was a record-breaking campaign for the Falcons offense under Mularkey.

The 2011 Falcons set a single-season franchise record for yards per game (376.6), the 10th-highest in the NFL, and passing yards per game (262.0). For only the second time in team history, the Falcons had a 4,000-yard passer (Ryan, 4,177), a 1,000-yard rusher (Turner, 1,340) and 1,000-yard receiver (White, 1,296). In addition, White, Gonzalez and Julio Jones were one of only four trios to each have 800 or more receiving yards. The Falcons ranked sixth in the NFL with a 44.2 conversion percentage on third downs, eighth with an 88.1 scoring percentage in the red zone, third in time of possession (32:05), sixth in fewest sacks (26) and second in 10-play drives (33).

Ryan set single-season franchise marks in 2011 for passing yards (4,177) and 300-yard passing games (six) and ranked eighth in the NFL with a 92.2 passer rating. He threw for at least one touchdown in 15 straight games and concluded the regular season with 166 passes without being intercepted and 77 consecutive pass plays without being sacked. Gonzalez ranked fourth in the NFL among tight ends with 80 receptions and was named to his 12th Pro Bowl. Rookie wide receiver Julio Jones led all first-year players with eight touchdowns and ranked second with 54 receptions for 959 yards, the most touchdowns and yards by a rookie in team history.

In 2010, Mularkey was named "Coordinator of the Year" by The Sporting News. That season the Falcons set a franchise record for first downs (353) and scored the third-most points (414, 25.8 avg.) in team history. The Falcons ranked third in the NFL in time of possession (32:15), third down conversions (46.7) and scoring efficiency (scoring on 70 of 178 possessions) while setting the franchise record for fewest turnovers in a season with 17. Six offensive players were named to the Pro Bowl including Ryan for the first time. Ryan established a team record with 357 completions and threw for 3,705 yards with 28 touchdowns and only nine interceptions. While White led the NFL in receptions with 115, Turner led the NFC with 1,389 rushing yards.

Injuries hampered both Ryan and Turner in 2009 but the offense still averaged 340.4 yards per game while the Falcons posted back-to-back winning seasons for the first time in team history. White led the team with 1,153 receiving yards and a career-best 11 touchdowns. Gonzalez, in his first season with the Falcons, set a team record for tight ends with 88 receptions for 867 yards and six touchdowns.

In Mularkey's first season with the Falcons, the club ranked second in the NFL with an average of 152.7 rushing yards per game and was sixth in total offense with a then-franchise-record average of 361.2 yards per game. The Falcons broke a 27-year old record by totaling 5,799 net yards and established a new club mark by surrendering only 17 sacks. Turner rushed for 1,699 yards and a team-record 17 rushing touchdowns while finishing second in the NFL in MVP balloting. Ryan was named the Associated Press Rookie of the Year as he became only the second rookie in NFL history at the time to throw for 3,000 yards in his first season, joining Peyton Manning (1998).

Prior to joining the Falcons, Mularkey spent two seasons with the Miami Dolphins, as offensive coordinator in 2006 and tight ends coach in 2007.

Mularkey served as head coach of the Buffalo Bills from 2004-05, leading the club to a 14-18 overall record. In his first season he directed the Bills to their first winning season in five years with a 9-7 record as the club tallied wins in nine of its final 12 games. The 2004 campaign is the last time the Bills have posted a winning record.

From 1996-2003, Mularkey spent eight seasons on the Pittsburgh Steelers coaching staff under head coach Bill Cowher, including the last three years as offensive coordinator. Under Mularkey's direction as coordinator, the Steelers finished third and fifth, respectively, in the NFL in total offense in his first two years. The Steelers led the NFL in rushing in 2001 with a 173.4-yard average per game, finishing that campaign with a 13-3 record and an AFC Central Division title while advancing to the AFC Championship game.

In 2001 Mularkey was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America. That season he tutored quarterback Kordell Stewart, who threw for 3,109 yards and was voted to the Pro Bowl. Mularkey played a key role in the development of quarterback Tommy Maddox's career in 2002. After not playing in the NFL for five years, Maddox threw for 2,836 yards with 20 touchdowns and set a single-season franchise record with a 62.1 completion percentage to earn NFL Comeback Player of the Year honors.

Mularkey spent his first five seasons in Pittsburgh as the club's tight ends coach where he helped mold Mark Bruener into one of the best run-blocking tight ends in the league. Running back Jerome Bettis eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for five straight years, while the Steelers ranked among the top 10 in the league in rushing in all five seasons including an NFL-best 154.9-yard average in 2007.

Mularkey entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1994 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as quality control coach before he was promoted to tight ends coach the following season. In his only season working with the Buccaneers tight ends, Jackie Harris had a team-high 62 receptions for 751 yards to become one of only three tight ends in team history to lead the team in receiving. Mularkey began his coaching career in 1993 at Concordia College where he oversaw the offensive line.

Drafted in the ninth round by the San Francisco 49ers in 1983, Mularkey played nine seasons in the NFL. He was released by the 49ers at the end of his first training camp and was signed by Minnesota. He spent the next six seasons with the Vikings before being signed as a Plan B free agent in 1989 by the Steelers, where he played for three seasons. Mularkey concluded his career with 102 receptions for 1,222 yards and nine touchdowns in 114 games played.

On June 25, 2012, Mularkey was named to the Advisory Board for Ronald McDonald Charities in Jacksonville.

A graduate of Northeast High School in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Mularkey played quarterback and earned a scholarship to the University of Florida. He was a three-year letterman at tight end for the Gators from 1979-82. He and his wife, Betsy, have two sons, Patrick, a strength assistant with the Jaguars, and Shane, a student at the University of North Carolina.

MEL TUCKER
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 8TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 4TH SEASON

Now in his 16th year of coaching and his eighth in the NFL, Mel Tucker joined the Jaguars coaching staff on January 24, 2009. He is in his fourth season as defensive coordinator for the Jaguars and his first as assistant head coach. Tucker served as interim head coach for the final five games of the 2011 season after being named to the post on November 29.

The Jaguars improved defensively from 28th in 2010 to sixth in 2011, the second-largest improvement in the NFL and improved in nearly every statistical category from the previous season. In 2011 Tucker's defense allowed 313.0 yards per game, the fewest since 2006, and ranked ninth in rushing yards per game (104.2), eighth in passing (208.8), second in fewest completions of 20-plus yards (43), third in fewest plays of 20-plus yards (51), second in most three-and-out drives (57) and third in first downs allowed per game (16.8). The unit ranked in the top 10 in 16 of the 17 weeks in 2011 despite using 14 different starting lineups in 16 games because of injuries. Only five players started all 16 games on defense and only eight players played in all 16 games. The unit lost two starting cornerbacks, a starting linebacker and starting defensive end in consecutive weeks to season-ending injuries.

The 2010 defense utilized eight different starting combinations in the first nine weeks. Just five players started all 16 games on defense and nine different players made starts in the secondary over the course of the season. Despite the turnover, the defense improved in sack production, from 14 the year before to 26. In his first year with the Jaguars in 2009, Tucker saw 21 different players make starts including four rookies. Among those rookies were two 16-game starters who were drafted in the third round in cornerback Derek Cox and defensive tackle Terrance Knighton. The defensive unit had the same starting lineup in consecutive games only once in 2009.

Tucker coached for four seasons with the Cleveland Browns (2005-08), serving as defensive backs coach for three seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator in 2008. Under Tucker's guidance the Browns ranked fifth in the NFL from 2005-08 with 73 interceptions and allowed the fourth-fewest completions of 25-plus yards (78).

The 2008 Browns defense ranked 14th in NFL pass defense (204.6) and tied for third with 23 interceptions. The defense finished with 31 takeaways, tied for the third-most in the NFL. Tucker was responsible for the development of two young safeties in 2007 in Sean Jones and Brodney Pool and two rookie cornerbacks who made an immediate impact. 2007 second-round pick Eric Wright tied for sixth in the NFL in 2008 with five interceptions while Jones had four interceptions.

In 2006 the Browns secondary was depleted by injuries, yet ranked 15th in the NFL in pass defense. The unit lost starters Daylon McCutcheon in training camp and Gary Baxter in week seven, and Leigh Bodden missed seven games. Jones and Daven Holly tied for the team lead with five interceptions apiece. In his first season with the Browns, Tucker's secondary unit ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense.

Prior to joining the Browns, Tucker spent eight seasons coaching on the collegiate level. He spent four seasons on Jim Tressell's staff at Ohio State, coaching defensive backs and serving as co-defensive coordinator during the 2004 season. Two of Tucker's Ohio State players, strong safeties Michael Doss and Will Allen, earned first-team All-America honors, while cornerback Chris Gamble was a second-team All-America selection.

Tucker, 40, began his coaching career at Michigan State as a graduate assistant under Nick Saban from 1997-98. He spent the 1999 season as defensive backs coach at Miami (Ohio) before serving in the same capacity at Louisiana State in 2000 under Saban.

Tucker was a standout basketball and football player at Cleveland Heights High School. He was a four-year letterman as a defensive back at the University of Wisconsin (1992-95), graduating in 1995 with a degree in agricultural business management. His father, Melvin ("Mel"), was a standout football and basketball player at Toledo and is a member of the Toledo University Athletic Hall of Fame. Tucker and his wife, Jo-Ellyn, have two sons, Joseph and Christian.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Michigan State 1997-98, Miami (Ohio) 1999, Louisiana State 2000, Ohio State 2001-04, Cleveland Browns 2005-08, Jacksonville Jaguars 2009-12.

BOB BRATKOWSKI
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

NFL: 21ST SEASON

JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Bob Bratkowski was named offensive coordinator for the Jaguars on January 13, 2012. Bratkowski has 20 years of NFL coaching experience including 14 as an offensive coordinator. He has previously worked with Jaguars head coach Mike Mularkey on two coaching staffs, in Atlanta last season and in Pittsburgh from 1999-2000. Now in his 35th year in coaching, Bratkowski coached 14 seasons at the collegiate level before entering the NFL in 1992.

Bratkowski served as quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons in 2011. Under Bratkowski's tutelage, Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan set single-season franchise marks in 2011 for passing yards (4,177) and 300-yard passing games (six) and ranked eighth in the NFL with a 92.2 passer rating. He threw for at least one touchdown in 15 straight games and concluded the regular season with 166 passes without being intercepted and 77 consecutive pass plays without being sacked. The Falcons set a single-season franchise record for yards per game (376.6) and passing yards per game (262.0).

Prior to joining the Falcons, Bratkowski spent 10 seasons (2001-10) with the Cincinnati Bengals as offensive coordinator. During his tenure in Cincinnati, the Bengals averaged 321.2 yards per game and 20.2 points per game. The Bengals ranked in the NFL's top seven in passing offense and in the top 10 in total offense in three of his final six seasons with the club. Seven players were named to the Pro Bowl during Bratkowski's stint with the Bengals, including WR Chad Ochocinco, OT Willie Anderson, RB Corey Dillon, WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, RB Rudi Johnson, FB Lorenzo Neal and QB Carson Palmer.

Under Bratkowski's direction, Palmer ranked fifth in the NFL in his first four seasons (2004-07) as a starter in passing yards (14,899), fourth in touchdown passes (104), sixth in completions of 25-plus yards (101) and eighth in passer rating (90.1). Two of the four seasons were highlighted by back-to-back 4,000-yard passing campaigns (2006, 4,035; 2007, 4,131). In Bratkowski's final season with the Bengals in 2010, Palmer ranked fourth in the NFL in attempts (586) and completions (362), sixth in passing yards (3,970) and ninth in touchdown passes (26).

In 2009 under the guidance of Bratkowski, the Bengals won the AFC North Division behind a strong running game. Three different rushers combined for a franchise-record eight 100-yard rushing games, only the second time in team history that three rushers had a 100-yard game in the same season. Running back Cedric Benson set a franchise record with six 100-yard rushing games as he finished eighth in the NFL with 1,251 yards despite missing two games with a hip injury. In Benson's absence, rookie Bernard Scott rushed for 119 yards at Oakland and veteran Larry Johnson gained 107 yards vs. Cleveland.

The Bengals 2009 offense averaged nearly four minutes more possession time than its opponents for the season (31:59 to 28:01). The Bengals ranked ninth in the NFL by allowing only 29 sacks. During Bratkowski's tenure with the Bengals, the club set franchise records for fewest sacks allowed twice, including a record-low 17 in 2007.

In 2007, Palmer became the fifth-fastest player (59 games) in NFL history to throw for 100 touchdown passes. Palmer knocked Brett Favre and Daunte Culpepper out of the top five in the category, and joined a group that also includes Dan Marino, Johnny Unitas, Peyton Manning and Kurt Warner.

From 2004-06, Rudi Johnson ranked fourth in the NFL with 4,221 rushing yards, the most by any Bengal in a three-season span. In Bratkowski's first two seasons as offensive coordinator, Corey Dillon posted back-to-back 1,300-yard rushing seasons. QB Jon Kitna revived his career under Bratkowski and threw for a career-high 26 touchdowns in 2006 and eclipsed 3,100 passing yards in three straight seasons.

From 1999-2000, Bratkowski was wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Bratkowski entered the NFL coaching ranks in 1992 as an assistant with the Seattle Seahawks and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1995 where he served four seasons. In 1997, he coordinated the NFL's top-ranked passing offense (247.4 yards per game) and the club ranked third in total offense (359.9). The Seahawks established club records for single-season passing yards (4,187) and completions (359) in 1997 and ranked second in the NFL in first downs (331).

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Bratkowski spent 14 years as a college coach, including four different stints as offensive coordinator at Weber State (1981-85), Wyoming (1986), Washington State (1987-88) and Miami (Fla.) (1989-91). The Hurricanes won national championships in two of the three seasons (1989, 1991) with Bratkowski directing the offense. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Missouri from 1978-80. A native of San Angelo, Texas, Bratkowski was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver at Washington State. His father, Zeke, played quarterback for 14 seasons in the NFL, seeing action for the Bears, Rams and Packers.

Born Dec. 2, 1955, Bob and his wife, Rebecca, have two children, son Shane and daughter Courtney.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Missouri 1978-80, Weber State 1981-85, Wyoming 1986, Washington State 1987-88, Miami (Fla.) 1989-91, Seattle Seahawks 1992-1998, Pittsburgh Steelers 1999-2000, Cincinnati Bengals 2001-10, Atlanta Falcons 2011, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

JOHN BONAMEGO
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

NFL: 14TH SEASON

JAGUARS: 5TH SEASON

Now in his 26th year in coaching, John Bonamego was named special teams coordinator for the Jaguars on January 20, 2012. Bonamego spent four seasons with the Jaguars from 1999-2002 including his final season as special teams coordinator.

Bonamego spent the 2011 season as assistant special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. Bonamego was special teams coordinator for the Miami Dolphins from 2008-10 and mentored several young players in kicker Dan Carpenter, punter Brandon Fields and return specialist Ted Ginn, Jr. Carpenter signed with the Dolphins as an undrafted rookie in 2008 and connected on 46 of his 53 field goal attempts (86.8 pct.) in his first two seasons. He set a Dolphins rookie record in 2008 with 11 straight made field goals and he was voted to the Pro Bowl after making 25 of 28 attempts. Fields set a franchise record with a 38.9-yard net average in 2009. Ginn, Jr. became the first player in NFL history to score two kickoff return touchdowns of 100 yards or more in the same game as he accomplished the feat on November 1, 2009. He was the first player in 42 years to have two returns for touchdowns in the same quarter while also recording 299 return yards, the second-most single-game kickoff return yardage total in NFL history. The Dolphins' 2009 special teams units were ranked 10th in the NFL by the Dallas Morning News.

Bonamego served two seasons (2006-07) with the Saints as special teams coordinator. The 2006 unit helped catapult the club to a 10-6 record, the NFC South title and an NFC Championship game appearance, with two game-changing plays. Against Atlanta, safety Steve Gleason blocked a punt that was recovered for a touchdown in the first quarter and the Saints blocked a field goal later in the game. In week five vs. Tampa Bay, Reggie Bush had a 65-yard game-winning punt return for a touchdown. The Saints finished the 2006 season ranked sixth in the NFL in opponent punt return average (7.0) and fourth in the NFC in kickoff return average (23.0). The Saints did not allow a kickoff return of more than 40 yards.

Bonamego spent three seasons (2003-05) as special teams coordinator for the Green Bay Packers. In his final season with the Packers, the team had the league's longest punt return for a touchdown (85 yards vs. Chicago), did not allow a return touchdown, and blocked two PATs and one field goal attempt. The Packers were one of only four teams in the NFL in 2004 that did not surrender a return touchdown or have a kick blocked. The Packers allowed only 20.2 yards on kickoff returns and ranked sixth in field goal percentage (85.7). The club had four game-winning field goals in 2004, the most since the 1970 merger.

In 2003, Bonamego's first season in Green Bay, the Packers finished fourth in the NFL in field goal percentage, fifth in kick return average and did not allow a blocked punt or field goal. The Packers blocked a field goal and a punt in the same season for the first time since 1997 and won the NFC North title.

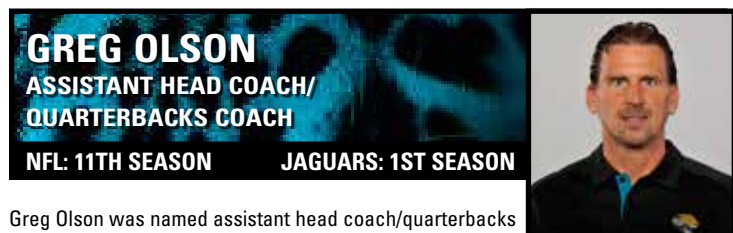

Bonamego joined the Jaguars coaching staff in 1999, working for three seasons as assistant special teams coach under Frank Gansz. Bonamego was promoted to special teams coordinator in 2002, and the 2002 special teams units ranked third in the rankings by The Dallas Morning News. The unit blocked four kicks (two field goals, two punts) and led the AFC in kick coverage (19.5-yard avg.). The Jaguars also led the AFC in gross and net punting average and were one of only two NFL teams that did not allow a return touchdown or a blocked kick. Punter Chris Hanson was selected to the AFC Pro Bowl squad in 2002.

Bonamego spent time on the collegiate level as an assistant coach at Maine (1988-91), Lehigh (1992) and Army (1993-98). He spent 1987 as a player-coach in Europe with the Verona (Italy) Redskins and was also an assistant at Mt. Pleasant (Mich.) High School.

Bonamego played wide receiver and quarterback at Central Michigan, where he earned a degree in health fitness in 1987. He received his master's degree in physical education from Maine in 1992. Bonamego also received an honorary doctorate degree from Central Michigan in 2009. He and his wife, Paulette, have three children: Javier, Giovanni and Bellina.

GREG OLSON
ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/
QUARTERBACKS COACH

NFL: 11TH SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Greg Olson was named assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach for the Jaguars on January 19, 2012. Olson has 25 years of coaching experience including 10 in the NFL and 15 at the collegiate level. His resume includes six seasons as an offensive coordinator in the NFL with Detroit (2005), St. Louis (2006-07) and Tampa Bay (2009-11).

Prior to joining the Jaguars Olson served four seasons with the Buccaneers including the last three as offensive coordinator. He spent the 2008 season as quarterbacks coach. Olson, 48, was responsible for the development of quarterback Josh Freeman, the 17th overall pick in the 2009 draft. Under Olson's guidance Freeman threw for 8,898 yards and 51 touchdowns in his first three seasons as a starter. In 2011 Freeman ranked eighth in the NFL with a 62.8 completion percentage and 13th with 3,592 passing yards.

In Olson's second season as offensive coordinator in 2010, Freeman ranked sixth in the NFL with a 95.9 passer rating while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions, placing him ninth for touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history. Olson helped guide the Buccaneers to one of their best offensive seasons in team history, setting franchise records for yards per play (5.61), average per rush (4.64 yards), average per pass play (7.21), passer rating (96.2) and fewest interceptions thrown (six). The Buccaneers also finished with the fourth-most points scored (341), third-most yards in total offense (5,362) and second-best third down percentage (42.2%) in a single season in team history.

The Buccaneers were the youngest team in the NFL in 2010 and wide receiver Mike Williams, a fourth-round draft pick, finished the year leading all rookie receivers in the league in every major receiving category while setting a single-season team record with 11 touchdown receptions. Running back LeGarrette Blount's 1,007 rushing yards led all rookie running backs and he became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards. It marked the first time since 1968 that a team had two different players lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards.

Despite his late elevation to the coordinator position in 2009, Olson's offense showed consistent growth around Freeman. The offense recorded three games of 400-plus yards of total offense, including 469 yards at Carolina for the fifth-best single-game performance in team history and the most by the team in over 20 years. Working closely with Olson, Freeman led all rookie quarterbacks in completion percentage (54.5) while setting Buccaneer rookie records for touchdown passes (10) and passing yards (1,855) despite starting in just nine games. He also threw the most touchdown passes by a rookie in a single game in team history as he became the second-youngest quarterback to win his first career start since 1970 with a 38-28 come-from-behind win over Green Bay in Week 9.

Kellen Winslow had the best season by a tight end in team history in 2009 as he led or tied for the team lead in receptions in 12 of the 16 games, and also led the team in receiving yards eight times. He led the team in receptions (77) and receiving yards (884), both good for single-season franchise records among tight ends. Winslow also led the team with five receiving touchdowns, tied for the fourth-most in a single season among Buccaneer tight ends.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2008, Olson was part of an offense that ranked 14th in the NFL and ninth in the NFC in total offense. In addition, the Buccaneers featured the 11th-ranked passing offense in the NFL as Tampa Bay signal callers passed for 3,788 yards. It marked the second-highest passing yardage total in team history while the 63.2 completion percentage ranked third in team history and the 83.8 passer rating by Olson's unit was the fourth-best in team annals. The Buccaneers offense finished the season amassing 5,456 total yards, the highest total in team history, while scoring 361 points, the second-highest total in team annals. Under Olson's tutelage, Jeff Garcia tied for second in the NFL for fewest interceptions (six), was ninth in the league and third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.9) and ninth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC in quarterback rating (90.2).

Prior to joining Tampa Bay Olson spent two seasons (2006-07) as offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. In his first year with the Rams in 2006 he helped guide a high-powered offense that ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (360.4 yards per game) and a passing offense that ranked third (247.6) in the NFC.

Under Olson's direction, the 2006 Rams became just the fourth team in NFL history to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Marc Bulger), a 1,500-yard rusher (Steven Jackson) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). Bulger, Jackson and Holt were all selected to the Pro Bowl. Bulger also posted career-highs in passing yards (4,301), passing touchdowns (24) and passing attempts (588) and completions (370) while ranking second in the NFL in interception percentage (1.4%). Jackson also had a career-year in 2006, leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 2,334, and he led all NFL running backs with 90 receptions and was fifth in the NFL in rushing yards with 1,528.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach (2004) and one season as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2005) for the Detroit Lions. In 2004 Olson took over play-calling duties for the Lions with three games remaining in the season and the Lions offense went on to average 403.6 total yards per game. In 2005 Olson was named offensive coordinator of the Lions in Week 11.

Olson entered the NFL as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 2001 under head coach Steve Mariucci. In 2001 49ers quarterback Jeff Garcia threw for a career-high 32 touchdown passes while posting a career-best 94.8 passer rating and 62.7 completion percentage. Following one season as tight ends/recruiting coordinator at Purdue, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach for the Chicago Bears in 2003.

From 1997-2000, as quarterbacks coach at Purdue, Olson played a key role in the development of Pro Bowl and Super Bowl-winning quarterback Drew Brees. Under Olson, Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000 while winning the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player in 2000. He was also a finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback in 1999 and 2000. Brees finished his collegiate career as the Big Ten and Purdue's all-time leader in passing yardage (11,792), touchdown passes (90), total yards (12,693), completion percentage (61.1%), completions (1,026) and attempts (1,678). He also ranked fourth in NCAA Division I-A history for total offense, completions and attempts upon his departure from Purdue. Under Olson, Brees had seven 400-yard passing games and 16 300-yard passing games. Brees earned Big Ten Player of the Year honors in 1998 and 2000 and All-Conference accolades for three straight years (1998-2000).

Olson began his coaching career in 1987 as a graduate assistant under the tutelage of head coaches Dennis Erickson (1987-88) and Mike Price (1989) at Washington State, where he earned his master's degree in athletic administration. He spent four seasons (1990-93) as an assistant at Central Washington University and two seasons at Idaho (1994-96). At Central Washington Olson developed quarterback Jon Kitna, who went on to become an NFL starter at Seattle, Cincinnati and Detroit. Olson also served as wrestling coach for four seasons at Central Washington including the last two as head coach.

A native of Richland, Washington, Olson played quarterback at Spokane Falls Junior College from 1981-82 and at Central Washington from 1983-84, earning his bachelor's degree in education. He and his wife, Lissa, have twins, Kenneth and Grayce. Lissa was the first female to be named head coach of a Division I track and field men's track team when she took over at Purdue in March of 2001. She spent 2011 as an assistant track coach at the University of South Florida.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Washington State 1987-89, Central Washington 1990-93, Idaho 1994-96, Purdue 1997-2000, 2002, San Francisco 49ers 2001, Chicago Bears 2003, Detroit Lions 2004-05, St. Louis Rams 2006-07, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2008-11, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

TOM MYSLINSKI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

NFL: 15TH SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Tom Myslinski was named strength and conditioning coordinator for the Jaguars on January 27, 2012. Myslinski played nine seasons as an offensive lineman in the NFL and spent three seasons as strength and conditioning coach for the Cleveland Browns.

Myslinski spent the past two seasons on the collegiate level, serving as strength and conditioning coach for football at North Carolina in 2011 and Memphis in 2010. He was responsible for planning and designing the interior of a $3 million, 13,000-square-foot weight room at Memphis. Myslinski was instrumental in maintaining a 92 and 88 percent start rate throughout the last two seasons.

A native of Rome, New York, Myslinski previously served three seasons (2007-09) with the Browns as the head strength and conditioning coach. He was the club's assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004 and also worked for the Browns on a part-time basis in 2003. He spent two seasons (2005-06) as head strength and conditioning coach at Robert Morris.

A fourth-round draft pick of Dallas in 1992, Myslinski played in 60 games with 25 starts including stints with Washington (1992), Buffalo (1993), Chicago (1993-94), Jacksonville (1995), Pittsburgh (1996-97, 2000), Indianapolis (1998) and Dallas (1999).

While playing in the NFL, Myslinski served as a volunteer assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1998-2001, working primarily with offensive and defensive linemen. Prior to his stint at Pittsburgh he spent 1996 as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach at the University of North Florida, where he managed all aspects of physical and mental development with the school's student-athletes. He also has served as a martial arts consultant to numerous collegiate athletic programs.

Myslinski developed and patented the "Tunch Punch Ladder" hand agility pad and has trained under offensive line guru Tunch Ilkin, who is the developer of the Tunch Punch system, which is used extensively by offensive line coaches throughout the NFL. He has published peer-reviewed research in the Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research on the development of strength and power using heavy chains and bands in addition to weights.

Myslinski is registered and certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and serves on the organization's Coaching Performance Committee and Human Performance Center Committee.

Myslinski earned all-conference honors at the University of Tennessee and earned eight varsity letters including four in football and four in track and field. He started at guard for back-to-back SEC championship teams (1989-90) and was also a member of the Volunteers' 1991 NCAA Champion track and field team. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology in 1992 and was a two-time Academic All-SEC member. He later earned his master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh in exercise physiology. Myslinski and his wife, Amy, have three children: Thomas, Emily and Michael.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Cleveland Browns 2003-04, 2007-09, Robert Morris 2005-06, Memphis 2010, North Carolina 2011, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

CRAIG AUCKERMAN
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS COACH

NFL: 3RD SEASON JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

Craig Aukerman is in his second season on the Jaguars staff and his first as assistant special teams coach. Aukerman spent the 2011 season as the Jaguars' defensive staff assistant, working mainly with the linebackers. Aukerman has 12 years of coaching experience and entered the NFL in 2010 when he served as defensive assistant on the Denver Broncos coaching staff.

The Jaguars defense ranked sixth in the NFL in 2011 and was led by linebackers Paul Posluszny and Daryl Smith. Posluszny led the team with a career-high 192 tackles along with nine tackles for loss, and Smith finished with 166 stops and a set a franchise record with 15 tackles for loss.

Aukerman's coaching career includes a decade at the collegiate level with seven seasons in the Mid-American Conference. He spent the 2009 season coaching linebackers for Kent State, which led all MAC defenses in red zone scoring that year.

From 2005-08 Aukerman coached linebackers at Miami (Ohio) in his second stint at the school. He previously spent the 2001-02 seasons as a graduate assistant at Miami. He returned for the 2005-08 seasons to coach linebackers in addition to serving as co-special teams coordinator the last two years. In 2008, he coached three linebackers who were on the Butkus Award watch list, marking the first time in the history of the Butkus Award that one school had all three of its linebackers appear on that list in the same season.

From 2003-04 Aukerman coached linebackers at Western Kentucky. He served as outside linebackers coach in 2003 and was special teams coordinator as well as inside linebackers coach in his second season there. That year the NCAA Division I-AA team was recognized in the top 11 national rankings by ESPN and USA Today.

Aukerman began his coaching career in 2000 at his alma mater, the University of Findlay, as wide receivers coach. That followed his successful playing career as a defensive back, wide receiver and special teams player there from 1995-98. He was twice named to the NAIA All-America team and graduated in 1999 with a degree in Elementary Education.

Aukerman and his wife, Summer, live in Jacksonville with their two sons, Cayden and Bryce.

BRANDON BLANEY
DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

NFL: 2ND SEASON JAGUARS: 2ND SEASON

Brandon Blaney is in his second season on the Jaguars coaching staff. He spent the 2011 season as the defensive quality control coach and was named defensive assistant coach on Jan. 18, 2012. Blaney, a veteran of 15 seasons coaching at the collegiate level, previously spent eight years on the coaching staff at the University of Kansas.

During his eight seasons at Kansas, Blaney served as recruiting coordinator as well as assistant offensive line coach and tight ends coach under head coach Mark Mangino. One of his players, tight end Derek Fine, was a fourth-round draft choice of the Buffalo Bills in 2008. As recruiting coordinator Blaney led and organized all recruiting efforts across the country.

Prior to his stint at Kansas, Blaney, 36, was on the staffs of two college teams that won national championships. He served four years (1995-98) at Youngstown State, his alma mater, which won the NCAA Division I-AA national championship in 1997. Blaney then coached at Oklahoma (1999-2000), which went undefeated and won the national championship in 2000 under head coach Bob Stoops. In 2001 Blaney served as a graduate assistant under head coach Jim Tressel at Ohio State.

Blaney attended Youngstown State and graduated in 1999 with a degree in education. He, his wife Sarah and their son Max live in Jacksonville.

SYLVESTER CROOM
RUNNING BACKS COACH

NFL: 22ND SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Sylvester Croom is a veteran of 20 years as an NFL coach and was named the Jaguars running backs coach on January 20, 2012. Croom has 36 years of coaching experience including five seasons as the head coach at Mississippi State.

Croom previously served as running backs coach for the St. Louis Rams from 2009-11. Under Croom's guidance, Rams running back Steven Jackson registered the fourth-most rushing yards in the NFL over those three seasons with 3,802. Jackson earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009 and 2010 and finished in the top 10 among NFL rushers in all three seasons under Croom, including second in 2009 with 1,416 rushing yards.

Prior to joining the Rams staff, Croom was head coach at Mississippi State from 2004-08. Croom became the first African-American head football coach in SEC history when he took over a program that had suffered three straight losing seasons and was under NCAA probation. He helped lead the Bulldogs to an 8-5 record in 2007, including a victory in the Liberty Bowl. He was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2007 by the Associated Press, the first time a Mississippi State coach received the AP honor since 1970. Croom spent three seasons (2001-03) as running backs coach for the Green Bay Packers. Under Croom's tutelage, Ahman Green was voted to three consecutive Pro Bowls and recorded three straight 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

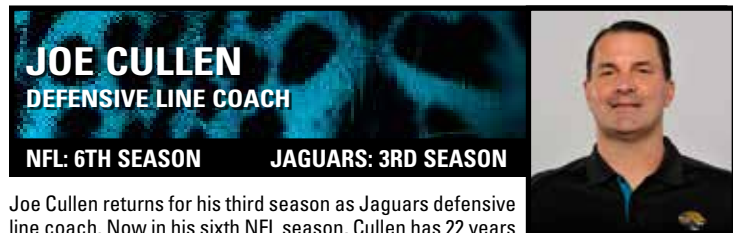

Croom was offensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions from 1997-2000. In his first season, Croom's offense ranked second in the NFL and Hall of Fame running back Barry Sanders led the NFL in rushing and became only the third player in NFL history to surpass 2,000 yards rushing. Wide receivers Herman Moore and Johnnie Morton each had 1,000-yard receiving seasons and Moore's 104 receptions led the NFL. The Lions became the first team in NFL history to have teammates lead the league in rushing and receiving in the same season.

The 57-year-old Croom also spent time as running backs coach for the San Diego Chargers (1992-96), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-90) and Indianapolis Colts (1991). During his tenure with the Chargers, the club won two AFC West titles and made the playoffs three times. Running back Natrone Means set a team rushing record with 1,350 yards in 1994.

After playing the 1975 season with the New Orleans Saints, Croom returned to his alma mater, the University of Alabama, as a graduate assistant coach in 1976. He spent the next 10 seasons as an assistant coaching inside linebackers (1977-81, 1984-86) and outside linebackers (1982-83) for the Crimson Tide. In his 11 seasons with the Crimson Tide, the school played in 10 bowl games, two national championship games, and he coached four NFL first-round draft choices in E.J. Junior (1981), Mike Pitts (1983), Cornelius Bennett (1987) and Derrick Thomas (1989).

A native of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Croom was a three-year letterman at Alabama where he played under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. Croom joined the Crimson Tide in 1971, the year after Wilbur Jackson and John Mitchell integrated the football team. Croom started at center for the 1973 national championship team and played a major role in the Crimson Tide posting a 22-2 record in his final two seasons. During his playing career, the Crimson Tide won three SEC championships (1972-74). He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Alabama with a minor in biology and a master's degree in educational administration. The "Sylvester Croom Commitment to Excellence Award" is given annually to an Alabama player at the end of spring practice. Croom and his wife, Jeri, have one daughter, Jennifer.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Alabama 1976-86, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 1987-90, Indianapolis Colts 1991, San Diego Chargers 1992-96, Detroit Lions 1997-2000, Green Bay Packers 2001-03, Mississippi State (head coach) 2004-08, St. Louis Rams 2009-11, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

Joe Cullen returns for his third season as Jaguars defensive line coach. Now in his sixth NFL season, Cullen has 22 years of coaching experience including 17 on the collegiate level.

Cullen is responsible for developing the defensive line, which improved its sack total in each of the two seasons under Cullen including 31 by the defense in 2011. He has been responsible for the development of two recent draft picks in defensive tackles Terrance Knighton and Tyson Alualu. Alualu, the 10th overall pick in 2010, has started the first 32 games of his career. Fourth-year defensive end Jeremy Mincey produced career-best totals in 2011 with 101 tackles along with a team-leading eight sacks and four forced fumbles. The eight sacks were the most by a Jaguar since Bobby McCray had 10 in 2006. Mincey has at least five sacks in back-to-back seasons, the first player to accomplish that feat since McCray and Rob Meier in 2006-07.

Prior to the Jaguars, Cullen served as defensive line coach at Idaho State in 2009, and spent three seasons (2006-08) with the Detroit Lions as defensive line coach. Under his direction, the Lions finished 10th in the NFL in sacks per pass attempt and finished in the top 10 for the second straight season in sacks. Rookie defensive end Cliff Avril led all first-year players in sacks with six and in forced fumbles with four.

In 2007 the Detroit defensive line improved from 24th to ninth in the NFL in sacks as the unit registered 28.5, seventh in the league. Three different linemen had career highs in sacks. During that time Cullen instituted the "Joe Cullen Big Man Camp" for linemen in the Detroit inner-city area, which he currently operates in Jacksonville.

Before his one season at Idaho State Cullen spent 16 seasons on the collegiate level as an assistant coach. He was part of Ron Zook's first staff at Illinois in 2005 as a defensive assistant. He was on the Indiana staff for three seasons (2002-04) including the last season as defensive coordinator when the Hoosiers knocked off two ranked teams in the same season for the first time in 16 years. Cullen spent the 2001 season at Memphis as defensive line coach.

Cullen, 44, spent eight seasons (1992-98, 2000) at Richmond including three as defensive coordinator. He was promoted from defensive line coach to defensive coordinator in 1997 and spent two seasons leading the unit. Following a year at Louisiana State he returned to Richmond to lead the defense in 2000. The Spiders led the Atlantic 10 in total defense in all three seasons Cullen served as defensive coordinator. In 2000 the unit ranked fourth nationally in rushing defense and 14th in scoring defense despite playing the nation's toughest schedule.

In 1998, the club finished 9-2 and won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA playoffs. He left in 1999 to coach the defensive line at Louisiana State but returned in 2000 to help lead the Spiders to a 10-3 record and an appearance in the NCAA quarterfinals.

Cullen played nose guard at the University of Massachusetts from 1986-89, earning All-Yankee Conference honors three times. He later began his coaching career overseeing the defensive line at his alma mater from 1990-91. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports management and has earned credits toward a master's degree at both Illinois and Richmond.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Massachusetts 1990-91, Richmond 1992-98, 2000, Louisiana State 1999, Memphis 2001, Indiana 2002-04, Illinois 2005, Detroit Lions 2006-08, Idaho State 2009, Jacksonville Jaguars 2010-12.

Now in his 38th year in coaching, Mark Duffner returns for his seventh season as the linebackers coach for the Jaguars. Duffner joined the Jacksonville staff in 2006 following three seasons in the same capacity for the Green Bay Packers. This is Duffner's 16th season in the NFL, and he previously served 22 years coaching on the college level including 11 seasons as a head coach.

Duffner has played a major role in the development of Daryl Smith who is considered one of the NFL's most consistent linebackers. Smith has started 122 of 124 career games, and has surpassed 100 tackles in seven straight seasons, and set a franchise record with 15 tackles for loss in 2011. Smith holds the team record for career tackles with 1,084 including 166 in 2011. The Jaguars had two new starters at linebackers in 2011, with both coming via free agency to join Smith. In his first season with the Jaguars Paul Posluszny led the team with a career-high 192 tackles, the second-most in franchise history for a season. Clint Session, who played four seasons with the Colts, played in nine games with six starts before being placed on injured reserve with a concussion. Former undrafted rookie Russell Allen stepped into the starting lineup and finished with a career-high 76 tackles.

While with the Packers Duffner helped develop 2003 first-round draft pick Nick Barnett. Green Bay's defense finished the 2005 season as the seventh-ranked defense in the NFL (1st against the pass) and Barnett set the team record with 194 tackles and became the first Packer to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons. In 2004 the Packers defense led the NFL in red zone defense, allowing only five conversions in 21 third-down attempts.

Duffner entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he spent six seasons as linebackers coach (1997-2000) and defensive coordinator (2001-02). In 2001 the Bengals defense allowed the unit's fewest points since 1989 and fewest yards per game since 1983. In addition, the defense set a franchise single-season record for sacks that year with 48.

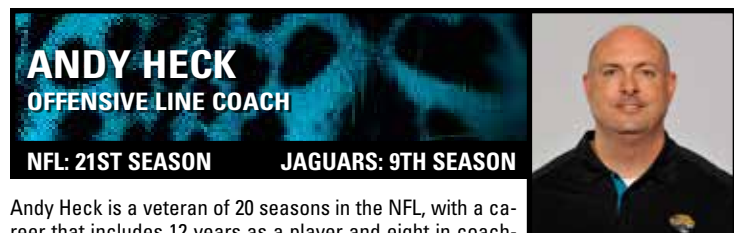

Prior to joining the Bengals staff, Duffner was head coach at the University of Maryland from 1992-96. He posted a 20-35 overall record that included an 11-11 mark over his final two seasons, the school's best two-season record since 1984-85. Duffner helped the Terps achieve their first national ranking in nine years when the club ranked as high as No. 17 in 1995. In addition to the success on the field, Duffner improved Maryland's player graduation rate, with three classes in a row ranking among the nation's best (1994-96).

Duffner also served as head coach at The College of Holy Cross (1986-91) where he compiled a 60-5-1 mark that included two 11-0 seasons (1987, 1991) during his six years. He was named national coach of the year five times while at Holy Cross and 'New England Coach of the Year' five times, and his 1987 Holy Cross team was ranked No. 1 in the nation in Division I-AA by the Associated Press. Duffner initially served as defensive coordinator at the school from 1981-1985. He was inducted into the College of the Holy Cross Athletic Hall of Fame in May of 2008.

Duffner's coaching career began as a graduate assistant under Woody Hayes at Ohio State (1975-76) where he earned a master's degree before serving as defensive coordinator at the University of Cincinnati (1977-80).

Duffner played defensive line at William & Mary (1972-74) and was later inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1990. He and his wife, Kathy, have three children, daughters Christina and Carolyn and son John.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Ohio State 1975-76, Cincinnati 1977-80, Holy Cross, 1981-91 (head coach 1986-91), Maryland (head coach) 1992-96, Cincinnati Bengals 1997-2002, Green Bay Packers 2003-05, Jacksonville Jaguars 2006-12.

Andy Heck is a veteran of 20 seasons in the NFL, with a career that includes 12 years as a player and eight in coaching. This is Heck's seventh season as the Jaguars' offensive line coach and his ninth season on the Jaguars staff. Heck joined the Jaguars coaching staff on February 9, 2004 as the offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach. He spent the 2005 season as Jaguars assistant offensive line coach before being promoted to offensive line coach in 2006.

The Jaguars offensive line in 2011 paved the way for Maurice Jones-Drew to win the NFL rushing title with 1,606 rushing yards, which also broke Fred Taylor's franchise single-season rushing record. Key to Jones-Drew's success has been the presence of veteran center Brad Meester. In 2011 Meester became the first player to play 12 seasons for the Jaguars, and he eclipsed the franchise record for career games played with 177.

In 2010 the Jaguars boasted the third-ranked rushing offense in the NFL, averaging 149.7 yards per game including a 4.7-yards-per-carry average that ranked fifth in the league. The team's 2,395 rushing yards were the second-most in team history, and this was achieved despite having only two offensive linemen – Meester and Uche Nwaneri – starting all 16 games. In 2009 Heck was the beneficiary of the Jaguars' first two draft choices being offensive tackles. Charged with integrating the two promising rookies into the lineup, Heck led Eugene Monroe to make 13 starts at left tackle while Eben Britton started 15 games at right tackle. The two rookies' appearance in the opening day starting lineup distinguished them as the first pair of rookie tackles to start an opener since 1982 when Luis Sharpe and Tootie Robbins started for the St. Louis Cardinals. In 2008 the Jaguars line was decimated at the outset when starting guards Maurice Williams and Vince Manuwai were lost to season-ending injuries on opening day. Meester also missed the first six games of that season with a biceps injury before joining the lineup.

Under Heck the line paved the way in 2006 and 2007 to the two highest single-season rushing totals in franchise history to date, and two of the three lowest sack totals. The Jaguars set the single-season franchise-record for rushing yards (2,541) in 2006 including a franchise-record 375 yards against Indianapolis, and allowed only 30 sacks, the second-fewest in team history. In 2007 the line led the way for 2,391 rushing yards (149.4), the most in the AFC and second-highest total in the NFL, and the team allowed only 31 sacks, the third-fewest in franchise history.

Prior to joining the Jaguars Heck served three seasons on the University of Virginia coaching staff, the first two seasons as a graduate assistant and the final year as tight ends coach. He tutored All-America tight end Heath Miller, who set numerous Atlantic Coast Conference tight end records for receiving and scoring. Miller was a first-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2005. Prior to joining the Virginia staff, Heck played in the NFL for 12 seasons (1989-2000) as a standout offensive lineman. He finished his playing career with the Washington Redskins, where he played for two seasons. As the starting left tackle in 1999 he blocked for an offense that ranked second in the NFL. From 1994 to 1998 Heck was a five-year starter for the Chicago Bears. In 1995, he gave up no sacks as part of an offensive line that yielded the fewest sacks in the NFL.

Heck was drafted in the first round (15th overall) by the Seattle Seahawks, where he was a unanimous All-Rookie selection in 1989. A starter for all five years with the Seahawks, he played three seasons without missing a snap.

Heck's fifth-grade teacher, Marylou Winkler of Annandale, Va., was named NFL Teacher of the Year in January of 1994, after being nominated by Heck. She received $5,000 from the NFL and the school received a $10,000 scholarship in both of their names.

A 1989 graduate of Notre Dame, Heck received a bachelor's degree in American studies. A first-team All-America selection, he co-captained the 1988 national championship team that finished 12-0. Heck was a tight end for his first three seasons at Notre Dame before moving to tackle in spring drills in his senior season. Heck was born January 1, 1967, in Fargo, North Dakota. He and his wife, Jennifer, have four children: Jonathan, Charlie, Molly and Evelyn, and live in Ponte Vedra Beach.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Virginia 2001-03, Jacksonville Jaguars 2004-12.

Josh Hingst is in his first season as the Jaguars assistant strength and conditioning coach after being named to the post on January 24, 2012. Hingst previously spent three years as the director of sports nutrition at Nebraska and also spent the 2008 season with the Atlanta Falcons.

In his role at Nebraska, Hingst directed body composition analysis, nutrition education, performance fueling strategies, eating disorder prevention and counseling for sports supplements and hydration. In addition, he coordinated menus and education at the Nebraska training table and planned meals on the road for various Nebraska teams.

Hingst is a registered dietician and a certified strength and conditioning specialist. Prior to his stint at Nebraska, Hingst served as team nutritionist for the Falcons during the 2008 season. He spent five years in strength and conditioning and sports nutrition capacities at Florida State, where he earned his master's degree in clinical nutrition with an emphasis in sports nutrition.

Hingst, a native of Hooper, Nebraska, received his bachelor's degrees in nutritional sciences and dietetics and exercise science from Nebraska in 2001, and was an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Huskers as a student at Nebraska.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Atlanta Falcons 2008, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

Bobby Johnson is in his first season as the Jaguars tight ends coach after being named to the post on January 20, 2012. Now in his third NFL season, Johnson has 17 years of coaching experience including 15 on the collegiate level.

Johnson, 38, previously served as assistant offensive line coach for the Buffalo Bills from 2010-11. He assisted in all aspects of coaching the offensive line group and worked specifically on the development of the group's young players.

Prior to joining the Bills, Johnson spent five years as the offensive line coach at Indiana from 2005-09. At Indiana Johnson developed two current NFL linemen in Rodger Saffold, the St. Louis Rams' 2010 second-round selection and James Brewer, the New York Giants' 2011 fourth-round selection.

During Johnson's tenure at Indiana, the Hoosiers posted some of the top offensive numbers in school history. Indiana broke the 2,000-yard rushing mark in 2007 and 2008, marking the first time since 2000 and 2001 the school produced back-to-back 2,000-yard rushing seasons. In 2008 the Hoosiers used seven different starting lineups along the offensive line and nine total linemen and produced 19 rushing touchdowns and a 4.5-yard average per rush, the best totals since 2001.

The Hoosiers averaged 157.4 yards on the ground in 2007 and 393.8 yards of total offense, the highest averages in each category since the 2011 campaign. During the 2006 season Johnson worked with the "seven blocks of limestone" - the nickname given to the seven incoming freshmen on the offensive line - and saw two of them, Pete Saxon and Rodger Saffold, earn multiple starts for the Hoosiers. In 2005 Johnson worked with Isaac Sowell, a fourth-round 2006 draft pick of Cleveland.

Johnson was an assistant coach at Miami (Ohio), his alma mater, from 1999-2004 including his final season as offensive line coach. He served as tight ends coach from 1999-2003. During his five-year tenure, the Red Hawks were 36-5 when outrushing the opponent. Johnson worked with eventual NFL draft picks Jacob Bell (fifth round, Tennessee Titans, 2004) and Alex Sulfsted (sixth round, Kansas City Chiefs, 2001) along with free-agent signees Matt Brandt (Detroit Lions, 2004) and Ben Herrell (Carolina Panthers, 2004).

Johnson spent four years at the University of Akron, two as a graduate assistant (1995-96) and two as the Zips' defensive line coach (1997-98). During his two years as a graduate assistant, Johnson assisted with a defensive line that included future NFL star Jason Taylor. Johnson was named the Zips' defensive line coach in 1997.

Johnson played offensive tackle at Miami (Ohio) and graduated with a degree in health appraisal and sport organization. During his playing career Johnson was a three-year starter on the offensive line from 1992-94. A native of Akron, he was a standout lineman at Akron Hoban High School where he also lettered in track and field. He and his wife, Kristen, have two daughters, Madilyn (13) and Olivia (10).

COACHING BACKGROUND: Akron 1995-98, Miami (Ohio) 1999-2004, Indiana 2005-09, Buffalo Bills 2010-11, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

Marlon McCree was named assistant secondary coach for the Jaguars on January 16, 2012. This is McCree's ninth season in the NFL, his first as a coach. He previously served two internships through the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship. He spent the 2010 training camp as a coaching intern with the New York Giants and 2011 with the Denver Broncos.

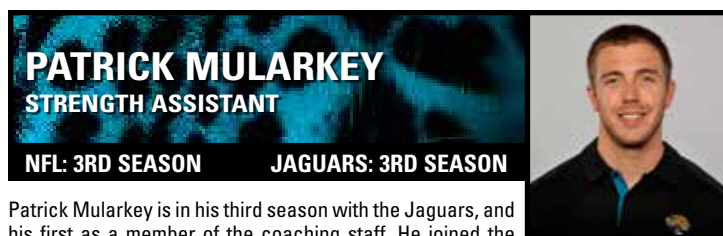

McCree, 34, was originally a seventh-round draft pick of the Jaguars in 2001 and went on to play eight seasons in the NFL. He is an Orlando native who grew up in Daytona Beach, Florida.

McCree started in 27 of his 31 games in Jacksonville from 2001-03 and had a career-high six interceptions for the Jaguars in 2002, tying for fifth in the NFL and second in the AFC that year. He also played for the Houston Texans (2003-04), Carolina Panthers (2005), San Diego Chargers (2006-07) and Denver Broncos (2008). McCree registered 16 career interceptions and 487 tackles while playing in 114 games with 91 starts. His playing experience included seven postseason games.

McCree was a three-year starter as a weakside linebacker at Kentucky, where he earned his bachelor's degree in finance in 2000. In high school he lettered in football as a SS and LB, as well as earning letters in track and basketball at Atlantic High School in Port Orange, Florida. McCree was a first team Class AAAA All-State selection in football by the Florida Sportswriters Association.

McCree is the youngest of eight children, with four brothers and three sisters. He and his wife Jahzi live in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

Patrick Mularkey is in his third season with the Jaguars, and his first as a member of the coaching staff. He joined the coaching staff on January 27, 2012 after spending the previous two seasons as a scouting assistant in the Jaguars' player personnel department. In that role he assisted in day-to-day duties of the department. As Strength Assistant he works under Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Tom Myslinski and Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Josh Hingst.

Mularkey initially joined the Jaguars as Scouting Assistant, Player Personnel in 2010. His duties included assisting in the day-to-day operations of the scouting department. He was responsible for the evaluation of assigned college players and NFL teams including the evaluation of unrestricted NFL free agents and players in the Arena Football League. Mularkey also worked with draft-eligible player visits in the spring and workout players throughout the regular and off-season.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Mularkey spent summers working in training camps for three other NFL teams. He assisted the equipment manager and staff for the Pittsburgh Steelers, and in 2005 he interned with the Buffalo Bills player personnel department where he assisted with free agency and player workouts. Mularkey later interned with the Atlanta Falcons strength and conditioning staff during the 2008 training camp.

Mularkey earned his bachelor's degree in Sports Management from Clemson University while working part-time in the football office. He is the older son of Jaguars Head Coach Mike Mularkey. Patrick was born in Eden Prairie, MN. He resides in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

Tony Oden was named secondary coach for the Jaguars on January 19, 2012. Oden, a 16-year coaching veteran, spent the past six seasons with the New Orleans Saints including the 2011 season as secondary coach.

Oden assisted with the Saints defensive backs from 2006-10 before he was promoted in 2011. In his six seasons with the Saints, the club won three NFC South division titles in addition to Super Bowl XLIV. Since 2009 the Saints have allowed the third-fewest touchdown passes (52), had the third-most interception return yards (928) and tied for the second-most interception returns for touchdowns (nine). In 2011 the Saints ranked third in the NFC with only 28 completions allowed of 20-plus yards. That season Roman Harper finished one sack away (7.5) from an NFL record for single season sacks by a safety.

In 2010 the New Orleans secondary played a key role in the defense's improvement from 25th to fourth in total defense, and 26th to fourth in passing defense. The Saints allowed an NFL-low 13 touchdown passes, and Roman Harper became the first safety in franchise history to be a two-time Pro Bowl selection.

The Saints ranked third in the NFL in 2009 with 26 interceptions, including a league-high five returned for touchdowns, while also ranking fifth in fewest touchdown passes allowed (15). Safety Darren Sharper led the team and tied for the NFL lead with nine interceptions including three returned for touchdowns. Oden assisted with the development of Tracy Porter, who in his second season had four interceptions in the regular season and two in the postseason. In Oden's first season with the Saints, the club ranked third in the NFL in pass defense.

Prior to joining the Saints, Oden spent two seasons (2004-05) as a defensive assistant/assistant defensive backs coach for the Houston Texans. In 2004 the Texans secondarily recorded 18 interceptions including six by rookie cornerback Dunta Robinson.

Oden was defensive backs coach at Eastern Michigan in 2003 following three seasons on the staff at East Carolina in various capacities. He was outside linebackers coach in 2000, secondary coach in 2001 and safeties coach in 2002. He also assisted with special teams each season.

Oden served as assistant defensive backs coach at Army for two seasons (1998-99) and also led the junior varsity team. He was a summer intern with the Green Bay Packers in 1999 and the Cleveland Browns in 2001.

Oden began his coaching career at Millersville (Pa.) University in 1996 as assistant defensive backs coach before spending the 1997 season a graduate assistant at Boston College.

A native of Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Oden was a two-time all-conference selection at linebacker for Baldwin-Wallace College. He earned All-America recognition his junior year, and as a senior was named a captain and received Co-Defensive MVP honors. He and his wife, Amanda, have a son Jaylen and a daughter Ryan.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Millersville 1996, Boston College 1997, Army 1998-99, East Carolina 2000-02, Eastern Michigan 2003, Houston Texans 2004-05, New Orleans Saints 2006-11, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

JAKE PEETZ
OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

NFL: 5TH SEASON JAGUARS: 5TH SEASON

Jake Peetz is in his fifth season with the Jaguars and his first as a member of the coaching staff. Peetz was named offensive assistant in May after serving four seasons in the team's scouting department.

Peetz had been named BLESTO Scout for the Jaguars on June 1, 2010 after joining the organization as Scouting Assistant, College/Pro Personnel in May of 2008. His duties included the evaluation of college players in the southeastern United States.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Peetz was at UCLA serving as the offensive staff assistant for current University of Hawaii Head Coach Norm Chow. In 2006 Peetz began his college coaching career at Santa Barbara City College, where he served as the safeties coach and strength & conditioning coordinator.

Peetz earned his bachelor's degree in Exercise Science in December of 2005 while playing football at the University of Nebraska. A letterman, Peetz served in a reserve role on in the Husker secondary and on special teams. Peetz also made an impact in the community. He was one of the most active student-athletes off the field, twice being named to the Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for his extensive community outreach work. He was also a football representative for the University of Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, and volunteered his time with the Special Olympics and Dads of Kids with Disabilities in addition to devoting time visiting hospitals and schools in the area.

A native of O'Neill, Neb., Peetz graduated from O'Neill St. Mary's High School. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

RON PRINCE
ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 3RD SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Ron Prince was named assistant offensive line coach for the Jaguars on February 8, 2012. Prince has 20 years of coaching experience including 18 at the collegiate level. His resume includes three seasons as head coach at Kansas State and two seasons in the NFL as an assistant offensive line coach.

Prince spent the last two seasons with the Indianapolis Colts as assistant offensive line coach. In 2010, Prince assisted with a line that helped the team post its 13th consecutive season and the AFC South title with 5,000-plus net yards. Quarterback Peyton Manning was 450 of 679 passing for 4,700 yards with 33 touchdowns and 17 interceptions. The offensive line tied for the NFL-low with 16 sacks in 695 pass attempts. The one sack allowed per 43.4 attempts ranked as the second-best mark in franchise history. The line had four different starting lineups as the club produced the NFL's fourth-ranked offense and the top-ranked passing offense. Manning extended his NFL records with a 13th consecutive 25-plus touchdown season and an 11th 4,000-plus yardage season while setting an NFL single-season record with 450 completions. Center Jeff Saturday earned a fifth Pro Bowl bid.

In 2009, Prince was the special teams coordinator and one of three former head coaches on the collegiate or professional level who served on the Virginia staff. Prince served as head coach at Kansas State from 2006-08, leading the team to 17 wins, the most wins by a coach in his first three seasons in school history. He had 19 players earn all-conference honors, and he directed the school to its first-ever road win over a top 10 team (41-21 at Texas, 2007). His tenure included the school's first-ever offensive consensus All-America selection in wide receiver Jordy Nelson. Prince recruited and signed record-setting quarterback Josh Freeman, who was a first-round draft pick of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2009. Kansas State led the nation in kickoff returns and kickoff return touchdowns in 2006, punt returns and punt return touchdowns in 2007 and punt return touchdowns in 2008. His 2008 unit blocked nine kicks to rank second nationally. During Prince's tenure, Kansas State led the nation with 13 punts and five kickoffs returned for scores and ranked fifth with 15 blocked kicks. His teams produced the highest conference graduation rate, totaling 21 all-conference academic performers.

Prince joined Virginia in 2001 as offensive line coach, and he added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2003. He helped Al Groh lead the school to four consecutive bowl games (2002-05). In 2003, the offensive line led the ACC in fewest sacks allowed and the 2004 team earned the same distinction, as well as leading the conference in rushing and total offense. During Prince's time at Virginia, 11 Cavaliers earned All-ACC honors, including the league's 2002 Player of the Year, Matt Schaub, and first-team All-Americans Elton Brown, D'Brickshaw Ferguson and Heath Miller. Overall, Prince helped develop nine offensive players into NFL draft selections.

Prince began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Dodge City Community College in 1992 and also spent time as an assistant at Alabama A&M (1993), South Carolina State (1994), James Madison (1995-97) and Cornell (1998-2000). He served minority coaching internships with the Jaguars (1996 under head coach Tom Coughlin), Washington Redskins (1997), Atlanta Falcons (1998) and the New York Giants (2000).

A native of Junction City, Kansas, Prince played collegiately at Dodge City Community College (1988-89) and Appalachian State (1990-91). He earned a bachelor's degree in history from Appalachian State in 1992.

Prince and his wife, Zoe, have four children: Deuce, James, Grace and John.

CEDRIC SCOTT
STRENGTH ASSISTANT

NFL: 1ST SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Cedric Scott is in his first season on the Jaguars coaching staff as strength assistant working under Strength and Conditioning Coordinator Tom Myslinski and Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach Josh Hingst.

Scott worked briefly in 2012 at North Carolina in the strength and conditioning department before joining the Jaguars. He previously served three years (2009-11) at Southern Mississippi on the strength and conditioning staff, including his last two years as head strength and conditioning coach for basketball. He was a graduate assistant in 2008.

Scott was a standout defensive end for Southern Mississippi, where he received his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology and his master's degree in sports. He earned All-America honors as a senior defensive end and was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

Scott was a fourth-round draft pick of the New York Giants in 2001 and played three seasons in the NFL, including 2001 with the Giants and 2002 with Cleveland. He also spent time with the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 2004 and the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League in 2005-06. In 2005 Edmonton won the CFL's Grey Cup.

A native of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, Scott is married to the former Dorian Wallace. The couple has one son, Cedric "CJ" Scott, Jr.

CHARLIE SKALASKI

ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH/ OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

NFL: 1ST SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Charlie Skalaski is in his first season with the Jaguars after being named assistant to the head coach/offensive assistant on January 24, 2012. Skalaski previously served nine seasons (2003-11) as an assistant at Liberty University in a variety of capacities.

After coaching the tight ends for Liberty in 2003, Skalaski served eight seasons as wide receivers coach while also serving as the program's director of football development from 2003-05. He was named recruiting coordinator in 2006 while continuing his role with the wide receivers.

In 2005, Skalaski was instrumental in the development of sophomores Brandon Turner and Wynton Jackson. Turner was named all-conference for the second consecutive season in 2006 while Jackson earned all-conference honors as a return specialist. The Flames' receivers combined for 19 touchdowns in 2007 and the club set the school and conference scoring record (469 points, 42.6 avg.) while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring offense.

In 2008, Skalaski had to replace two all-conference receivers who had been starters the previous three years. The receiving corps increased its numbers in terms of yards, touchdowns, receptions and yards per catch in helping the Flames to their first-ever 10 win season. Dominic Bolden enjoyed one of the finest seasons of any receiver in the country in 2008 with 56 receptions for 1,056 yards, nine touchdowns receiving and two rushing. The duo of Bolden and Jonathan Crawford combined for 1,769 receiving yards to become the second-most productive tandem in program history. Bolden and Crawford were both named all-conference, the first time in school history that the Flames had two receivers named all-conference in the same season.

Under Skalaski's tutelage, wide receiver Chris Summers earned All-America honors in back-to-back seasons and led the conference in 2011 with 64 receptions for 1,014 yards and seven touchdowns. He finished his career as the school's all-time career record holder in receptions (188), receiving yards (2,712) and touchdown receptions (26).

Prior to joining the Liberty staff, Skalaski spent more than 20 years in corporate business in both sales and managerial roles. He worked for Steelcase Inc., an international company which is the world's largest manufacturer of high quality office environments and furniture. During his tenure, Skalaski held various sales and management positions, culminating with his promotion in 1998 to sales manager of Steelcase's largest field office, located in New York City. Before his days at Steelcase, Skalaski worked for the Xerox Corporation, earning the organization's highest sales recognition in the President's Club.

Skalaski began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida where he spent three years learning under Mike Shanahan and Steve Spurrier, assistant coaches for the Gators during that time. He also spent time as a volunteer assistant for two seasons (2001-02) with Ridgewood High School in New Jersey.

A native of Miami, Skalaski played defensive back at Florida and was a member of three bowl teams: the 1974 Sugar Bowl, 1975 Gator Bowl and 1976 Sun Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Florida in 1978 and was awarded a prestigious U.S. Department of Justice internship. He also was inducted into Florida Blue Key, the university's highest leadership and honorary society. He went on to earn his master's degree in public administration in 1980 from Florida. Skalaski and his wife, Ann, have three children: Sarah, Charlie IV and Jacob (Jake).

PAUL SPICER

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE COACH

NFL: 12TH SEASON JAGUARS: 11TH SEASON

An 11-year NFL veteran, Paul Spicer is in his second season on the Jaguars coaching staff and his first as assistant defensive line coach. Spicer spent the 2011 season as a defensive assistant with the Jaguars.

Prior to joining the coaching staff, Spicer played nine seasons on the defensive line for the Jaguars from 2000-08, and was part of two playoff teams (2005, 2007). He played in 115 games with 63 starts and compiled 349 tackles, 28.5 sacks, six forced fumbles, four fumble recoveries and one interception. His 28.5 sacks rank as the fourth-most in franchise history.

He completed his career by signing with the New Orleans Saints for the 2009 postseason, and he was part of that year's Super Bowl champion team. Spicer, 36, began his pro career in 1998 by playing in seven games for the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the Canadian Football League. He also spent time that year with the Seattle Seahawks and Detroit Lions, and played in two games for the Lions in 1999. He joined the Jaguars as a free agent in 2000.

Spicer, 36, played his final two collegiate seasons (1996-97) at Saginaw Valley State, where he set a school record with 21.5 sacks as a senior and was named the conference player of the year. He graduated with a degree in history education. Spicer previously played at College of DuPage in Glen Ellyn, Ill., where he was a JUCO All-America linebacker in 1995.

A native of Indianapolis, Indiana, Spicer attended Northwest High School. He and his wife, Shariffa, live in Jacksonville.

JERRY SULLIVAN

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

NFL: 20TH SEASON JAGUARS: 1ST SEASON

Jerry Sullivan was named wide receivers coach for the Jaguars on January 20, 2012. Sullivan has 40 years of coaching experience including 19 in the NFL and 21 at the collegiate level.

Sullivan has coached several Pro Bowl receivers in his career including the San Diego Chargers' Anthony Miller (1992-93) and Tony Martin (1996), Detroit Lions' Herman Moore (1997-98) and Germaine Crowell (1999) and Arizona Cardinals' David Boston (2001) and Anquan Boldin (2003).

Sullivan, 65, did not coach in 2011 and spent the offseason working with NFL players in Minnesota including Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl receiver Larry Fitzgerald and Green Bay Packers tight end Jermichael Finley. He previously served as wide receivers coach/senior assistant for the San Francisco 49ers from 2005-10. The 49ers selected wide receiver Michael Crabtree with the 10th overall pick in 2009 and he had 103 receptions for 1,366 yards and eight touchdowns under Sullivan's tutelage. Under the guidance of Sullivan, 2008 sixth-round pick Josh Morgan posted a career-high 52 receptions for 527 yards in 2009 and had a career-best 698 receiving yards on 44 receptions in 2010.

In 2008, Sullivan's unit was highlighted by the play of 15-year veteran wideout Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's Len Eshmont Award for his courageous and inspiring play. Bruce had seven touchdown receptions, his most since 2002, and led all receivers with 835 receiving yards on 61 catches.

Prior to his time with the 49ers, Sullivan spent one season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins in 2004. He was a member of the Arizona Cardinals coaching staff for three seasons (2001-03). In his first two seasons with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included David Boston. Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2003 where he worked with wide receiver Anquan Boldin. Boldin finished third in the NFL in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers where he spent five seasons (1992-96). He coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997-2000. Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, he spent 21 years as an assistant on the collegiate level. Sullivan was an assistant at Kansas State (1971-72), Texas Tech (1973-75), South Carolina (1976-82), Indiana (1983), Louisiana State (1984-90) and Ohio State (1991).

A native of Miami, Sullivan played quarterback at Miami Jackson High School. He earned a scholarship to Florida State and later transferred to Delta State.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, have one son, Jon-Eric, who has spent the past eight seasons with the Green Bay Packers as an area scout.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Kansas State 1971-72, Texas Tech 1973-75, South Carolina 1976-82, Indiana 1983, Louisiana State 1984-90, Ohio State 1991, San Diego Chargers 1992-96, Detroit Lions 1997-2000, Arizona Cardinals 2001-03, Miami Dolphins 2004, San Francisco 49ers 2005-10, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012.

GENE SMITH
GENERAL MANAGER

Gene Smith was named general manager of the Jaguars on January 12, 2009. His responsibilities had increased in January of 2008 when he was given the title of executive director, college and pro personnel. His duties expanded even further in his role as general manager, but his primary focus continues to include the scouting and evaluation of hundreds of college and pro players on an annual basis, and the orchestration of both the college draft and pro free agency process. Smith is assisted by ten talent evaluators with a total of more than 100 years of scouting experience in the NFL.

Smith is one of 10 current Jaguars staff members who have been with the franchise since 1994. He has been a part of building Jaguars teams that have made eleven playoff game appearances including two AFC Championship games. Of the 26 players drafted by Smith over the past four years, 21 are on the Jaguars' roster entering the 2012 training camp.

Smith's first draft class in 2009 was led by two offensive tackles selected in the first two rounds in Eugene Monroe and Eben Britton. With the first two draft selections in 2010 Smith continued to strengthen the team up front by acquiring two defensive tackles, Tyson Alualu and D'Anthony Smith. In the 2011 draft, quarterback Blaine Gabbert was chosen in the first round and guard Will Rackley in the third, and the two rookies each made 14 starts. This year's draft class was led by wide receiver Justin Blackmon, selected fifth overall following a trade with Tampa Bay, followed by defensive end Andre Branch and punter Bryan Anger in the second and third rounds.

After six years as a Jaguars college scout, Smith became the director of college scouting in 2000, and he scouted the nation and helped guide the team's NFL draft for the next eight years. Smith was previously the team's college scout responsible for the southeast United States. He joined the Jaguars on May 1, 1994 and was originally the team's scouting representative for the northeast with the BLESTO scouting combine, which he joined in February 1994. He was the southeast regional scout for BLESTO in 1995 before becoming solely the southeast regional scout for the Jaguars.

Smith had previously been an assistant coach at the college level for eight years. He worked at Edinboro University from 1989-94, serving as an assistant coach, recruiting coordinator, and strength and conditioning coordinator. From 1986-88 Smith worked at Ohio University, where he began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant and later served as an assistant coach.

Smith graduated from Heidelberg College, serving as a captain of the football team while playing as a defensive lineman. He graduated in 1986 with a degree in education and in 1987 received his master's degree with emphasis in athletic administration from Ohio University. In 2010 Smith was selected to be a member of NFL's General Managers Advisory Committee which is an advisory arm of the Competition Committee. He also serves on the NFL Subcommittee on College Relations. Smith was a member of the 2008 NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

Smith is a member of both the NFL College Advisory Committee and the National Invitational Camp (NFL Scouting Combine) Selection Committee. In 2011 he became a member of the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Advisory Council. He's been inducted into his high school hall of fame, and served as a captain of the Monroeville (Ohio) High School football team as well, under Ohio High School Hall of Fame head coach Steve Ringholz. He is active in various charitable causes.

Born December 31, 1963, Smith is a native of Monroeville, Ohio. He is married with two daughters.

TERRY McDONOUGH
DIRECTOR, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Terry McDonough was promoted by General Manager Gene Smith to Director, Player Personnel on Jan. 12, 2009. He scouts the top collegiate players throughout the nation, as well as the top free agency prospects each year. Additionally, McDonough does crosschecks, attends all major all-star practices and selective spring player workouts of the top draft-eligible players as well as handling the trades with other teams on draft day. He also has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

In McDonough's first draft in his current role, the 2009 draft class was led by two OTs selected in the first two rounds in Eugene Monroe and Eben Britton, and on the defensive side DT Terrance Knighton and CB Derek Cox were selected in the third round. In the first two rounds in 2010 the team was strengthened up front again in acquiring two DTs, Tyson Alualu and D'Anthony Smith.

In 2011 the first three picks were on offense, with QB Blaine Gabbert selected 10th overall, G/C Will Rackley added in the third round and WR Cecil Shorts III in the fourth. The 2012 draft featured WR Justin Blackmon as the fifth-overall selection in a trade-up with Tampa Bay. The second and third rounds landed DE Andre Branch a P Bryan Anger.

Of the 26 players drafted by the Jaguars over the past four years, 21 are on the roster entering the 2012 training camp.

A Boston native, McDonough began his NFL scouting career with an internship with the San Francisco 49ers in 1989. Following his graduation from Massachusetts with a sports management degree, he was named player personnel director of the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1990. While with the Dragons (1990-92), McDonough handled a variety of personnel assignments, serving as west coast scout for the league and helping each team prepare for the WFL drafts. McDonough toured both NFL and CFL training camps to grade potential WFL players. The 1991 Barcelona team finished with a 9-3 record, losing the league title to London in the World Bowl. The following season, the Dragons captured the European title.

In 1992, McDonough was hired by the Cleveland Browns as the southeast area scout, and he moved to Baltimore with the franchise in 1996. McDonough joined the Jaguars in 2003 from the Baltimore Ravens, for whom he scouted the eastern half of the country for the previous three years as the Ravens' eastern college supervisor under the direction of General Manager Ozzie Newsome. During McDonough's tenure with the Ravens the team won Super Bowl XXXV following the 2000 season.

At Hingham (Mass.) High School, McDonough was all-conference as a running back in football as well as in baseball, and he also lettered in basketball. He transferred to Bridgton Academy.

McDonough is the son of the late Will McDonough, the long-time sports reporter and columnist for The Boston Globe who also worked at CBS Sports and NBC Sports. He is also the brother of Ryan McDonough, assistant general manager of the Boston Celtics, and Sean McDonough, the play-by-play voice of Monday Night Baseball who was previously on air for CBS Sports and was the television voice of the Boston Red Sox.

LOUIS CLARK

DIRECTOR, PRO PERSONNEL

Louis Clark was named Director, Pro Personnel in December of 2011. He was previously promoted to Assistant Director, Pro Personnel on May 13, 2003 after serving as a college scout for the Jaguars since 1997. A former wide receiver for the Seattle Seahawks and Green Bay Packers, Clark handles the advance scouting during the season and also assists in college player evaluations.

Clark attended Mississippi State where he played wide receiver from 1983 to '86 before being selected in the 10th round of the 1987 draft by the Seattle Seahawks. He played seven seasons in the NFL, including six with the Seahawks and one with the Green Bay Packers, before retiring after the 1993 season.

Clark coached in 1996 in NFL Europe with the Amsterdam Admirals, where he served as running backs and special teams coach. He also coached with the St. Louis Rams in 1996, helping with the wide receivers during training camp. Clark has a brother, Dave Clark, who played 13 years as a major league baseball player and currently is the third base coach for the Houston Astros.

Clark graduated from Mississippi State with a degree in educational psychology in 1994. He was born July 3, 1964 in Tupelo, Miss. He and his family live in Jacksonville.

ANDY DENGLE

DIRECTOR, COLLEGE PERSONNEL

Andy Dengler was named Director, College Personnel in December of 2011. He had been promoted to National Scout on Jan. 12, 2009 and has been a Jaguars college scout since 1998. Dengler is responsible for scouting the top collegiate players throughout the nation. He joined the Jaguars from the National Football Scouting combine, where he was an area scout in the northeast and mid-Atlantic regions the previous four years. Dengler has some additional pro personnel responsibilities as well.

Previously Dengler served as an assistant head coach, offensive line coach and defensive backfield coach at St. Joseph's College (Ind.) from 1992-95. He was offensive coordinator, interim head coach and offensive line coach at Tiffin University 1990-92, as well as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green (1988-90) and an assistant high school coach in Circleville, Ohio.

Dengler graduated with a degree in history from Heidelberg College, and he received his master's in secondary education from Bowling Green. He was born Sept. 9, 1963 in Berea, Ohio.

TIM MINGEY

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, COLLEGE PERSONNEL

Tim Mingey was named Assistant Director, College Personnel on Jan. 12, 2009 and he has been with the Jaguars since 1994, serving as a college scout for nine years before being named executive scout in 2003. He has the responsibility of scouting the southeast region of the United States. In February 2010, Mingey was presented the C.O. Brocato Scout of the Year Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Additionally, Mingey does selective crosschecks and attends all major all-star practices and spring player workouts of the top draft-eligible players. He also coordinates the post-draft college free agency process and has some additional pro personnel responsibilities.

Mingey is one of 10 current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994. Before joining the Jaguars, Mingey spent 11 years as a college assistant coach and then 10 years as a recruiting coordinator. His college coaching career began in 1973 as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at St. Joseph's College (Ind.), where he had been a three-year varsity letterman as a defensive back. He was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan in 1974-75, then served as defensive coordinator at Loyola Academy in 1976 before returning to Western Michigan as an assistant coach from 1977-81. In 1982, Mingey was coach of the secondary at East Carolina, and in 1983 he coached at Miami (Ohio) University as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

In 1984 Mingey was named the recruiting coordinator at the United States Military Academy. He served there until 1987, and then spent 1988-90 as recruiting coordinator at Tennessee. In 1991 Mingey returned for three more years at the U.S. Military Academy before joining the Jaguars.

Mingey received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from St. Joseph's College in 1972 and a master of arts in physical education in 1976 from Western Michigan. Mingey was born January 1, 1950 in Chicago.

JASON DesJARLAIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Jason DesJarlais was promoted to regional scout on June 1, 2009. He joined the Jaguars as the BLESTO scout for the southeast area on May 18, 2007. DesJarlais is responsible for scouting the Midwest of the United States. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was the special teams coordinator/defensive assistant at Yale University. While at Yale he served as an intern for scouting during the Jaguars' 2006 training camp.

DesJarlais' college football experience includes stints at Jacksonville University (2005-06) as special teams/recruiting coordinator and secondary coach; the University of San Diego (2002-05) as defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator, linebackers coach, secondary coach and interim head coach; Bates College (2000-02) as defensive line and strength coach; Humboldt State University (1997-99) as defensive line coach; and the University of Montana (Western) (1996-97) as defensive line coach.

DesJarlais attended the University of Montana at Western, playing DE there from 1992-95 and twice earning All-America honors (1994-95). He was also named Defensive MVP of the 1996 National All-Star Game. DesJarlais graduated with a bachelor's degree in Education, in addition to a Master's in Science (emphasis in Physiology) from Humboldt State University.

CHRIS DRIGGERS

PRO SCOUT

Chris Driggers is in his 15th year in scouting and his 18th overall with Jaguars. Now in his fourth season in the pro personnel department, Driggers is responsible for grading pro evaluations and player workouts, as well as college evaluations. He previously spent nine years scouting the southwest region of the country.

Originally hired in October of 1994, Driggers is one of 10 current staff members who joined the Jaguars that year. He worked his way up to salary cap administrator, assisting in preparing player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998, assisting in the evaluation of free agents along with college and pro players.

Driggers, a native of Jacksonville, graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife have three sons.

MARTY MILLER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Marty Miller is in his eleventh season with the Jaguars, joining the organization on February 21, 2002. He is in his sixth season as the West coast regional scout for the Jaguars. In addition to covering the West coast, Miller has some additional pro personnel responsibilities scouting select free agents on NFL rosters.

Previously Miller worked the northeast United States as a regional scout. In his initial season in Jacksonville he worked as the team's scouting assistant. In that capacity he assisted the pro scouting department evaluating players in NFL Europe, the CFL, the Arena League and doing some advance scouting of NFL teams and their practice squads.

Miller also served as coordinator of football administration for the Los Angeles Xtreme of the XFL, and he worked as a part-time staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers and the Kansas City Chiefs. He is the son of Les Miller, a longtime NFL personnel director. Diagnosed with Young Onset of Parkinson's Disease in 2009, Miller hopes to use his platform as a representative of the NFL as a springboard to Parkinson's awareness and education.

A graduate of Pacific Christian College, he and his wife, Kerinda, live in Boise, Idaho with daughter Channing and son Gannon.

CHRIS PRESCOTT
COLLEGE SCOUT

Chris Prescott is in his fourth season as the southwest regional scout for the Jaguars. In 2008 he served as the north-east regional scout, and he has been with the department since 2002. Prescott is responsible for scouting the south-west region of the United States for the Jaguars.

A native of Bridgeport, Conn., Prescott worked for the Bridgeport Bluefish minor league baseball team in 1999 and for Madison Square Garden in 2000, where he worked with the Hartford Wolfpack (New York Rangers minor league hockey affiliate) and the New England Seawolves (Arena League).

Prescott played safety for four years at Western New England University in Springfield, Mass., where he earned a degree in sports management and a master's in business administration. He was born on October 28, 1979. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

BRIAN SIMMONS
COLLEGE SCOUT

Brian Simmons was named a regional scout for the Jaguars on June 1, 2009. A veteran of 10 years as a player in the NFL, Simmons played linebacker for the Cincinnati Bengals and New Orleans Saints before beginning his career in scouting.

Simmons, 37, was selected 17th overall in the 1998 college draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played nine seasons (1998-2006) with the Bengals before spending his final season with the New Orleans Saints in 2007. In 2004 he was selected for the Good Guy Award by the Cincinnati chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America.

A native of New Bern, N.C., Simmons attended the University of North Carolina where he played from 1994-97 and was a team captain and a first-team All-America selection. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology in 1998, the same year he was inducted into the UNC Football Ring of Honor.

Simmons and his wife, Rachel, have a daughter Brianna, and a son, Tyler.

DAVID ALLEN
BLESTO SCOUT

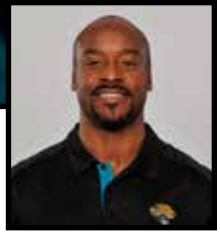

Former Jaguars running back David Allen joined the team's scouting department in February of 2012 and was named BLESTO scout on June 1, 2012. Allen played for the Jaguars in 2003 and 2004 as a running back and kick returner. He had a six-year pro playing career including stints with the 49ers, Vikings, Rams and the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL.

Prior to his return to Jacksonville, Allen served three years as an offensive quality control coach at Kansas State, his alma mater. During that time he assisted in coaching the team's running backs, receivers and punt and kick returners.

In 2003 Allen ranked fourth in the AFC with a 12.0-yard punt return average and 15th in the AFC on kickoff returns with a 20.3-yard average while playing in the last 14 games. His 831 kickoff return yards marked a Jaguars team record and included a 61-yarder.

While at Kansas State Allen was a first team All-America kick returner in 1998-99. He earned two degrees at Kansas State, receiving his bachelor's in social science as well as a master's in college student development in 2011. He was inducted into the Kansas State Football Ring of Honor in 2008.

A native of Texas, Allen grew up in Liberty, Missouri before attending Kansas State. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

TONY KHAN*SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY & ANALYTICS

Tony Khan was named Senior Vice President, Football Technology & Analytics for the Jaguars in July of 2012. Khan arrived in Jacksonville after serving as General Manager and a member of the Board of Managers of Bio-Alternative LLC since 2008. The 30-year-old Khan vacated his position at Bio-Alternative in June in order to take on his current role.

Under Tony Khan's guidance, the Jaguars created a Football Technology and Analytics group in 2012. In addition to being a valued asset to the coaching and scouting departments, this group also explores new technology and its applications within all areas of the Jaguars organization. These areas include fan experience, player development and injury prevention in addition to game analysis and player evaluation.

Khan joined Bio-Alternative in 2007, assisting the Board of Managers with its plans to build a bio refinery in Covington, Ind., which would produce and sell large quantities of biodiesel fuel made from used cooking oils and animal fats. Until his departure in 2012 Khan oversaw the construction and start-up of the bio refinery, which has produced and sold hundreds of thousands of gallons of biodiesel in the past year.

Khan graduated from the College of Business at the University of Illinois in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in finance.

Khan grew up in Champaign-Urbana, Ill., where he was born on October 10, 1982. He graduated from the University of Illinois Laboratory High School in 2001, where his graduating class had the highest ACT average of any class at any school in America. He was also an Illinois State Scholar and a National Merit Semifinalist.

The award for dedication to the basketball program at University High is known as the Tony Khan Award.

Khan currently serves on the advisory board of the University of Illinois Laboratory High School. He is single and lives in Champaign-Urbana and Jacksonville.

MIKE PERKINSDIRECTOR, FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY & FACILITIES

After 18 years as the Jaguars' video director, Mike Perkins took on a new role in 2012 as Director, Football Technology & Facilities. His new duties included the off-season-long project of design and construction of the Jaguars' new locker room at EverBank Field, in addition to design, planning and implementation of office space and technology for the football facilities. Perkins also oversees the newly-created technology and research departments for football operations.

Perkins' responsibilities also continue to involve the shooting, compiling and editing of all game and practice video for coaches' and scouting analysis, cataloging NFL and college game video and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all video equipment and design of the Jaguars' video department, including implementing the team's state-of-the-art XOS editing system.

One of 10 current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994, Perkins was hired by the Jaguars on May 12, 1994, after serving as video coordinator for three years at Syracuse University. Prior to that, he served with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as assistant video director from 1987-90. Perkins was born May 24, 1967, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Perkins and his wife, Jennifer, and sons Tyler and Barrett live in Jacksonville.

MIKE RYANHEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER, PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Mike Ryan has been the Jaguars' original head athletic trainer/physical therapist since June 1, 1994, after serving as assistant athletic trainer/physical therapist for the New York Giants for six seasons starting in April 1988. His NFL career started by working as an athletic trainer intern with the Giants for three preseason training camps from 1984 to '86.

This is his 25th season in the NFL and Ryan is one of 10 current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994. In 2003, Ryan and his staff won the prestigious Ed Block Courage Award's NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

Ryan is President of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society Research & Education Foundation. Ryan is a member of the National Football League Foot & Ankle Committee. Mike also serves as Chairman of the NFL Collegiate Athletic Trainers Committee. Ryan is a member of the Sports Concussion Medical Advisory Board. He is a member of the Korey Stringer Institute Medical & Science Advisory Board and an advisor and co-author of the National Athletic Trainers Association's Position Statement on Lightning Safety For Athletics and Recreation.

Ryan is a successful online sports medicine author and trusted consultant. Mike enjoys sharing his passion for wellness through his role as an accomplished international speaker on numerous topics related to sports medicine and athletic performance.

Ryan has served as a volunteer athletic trainer/physical therapist at the United States Olympic Training Center in the summer of 2008 to assist the Olympic medical staff and athletes as they prepared for the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, China.

Ryan attended Central Connecticut State University, where he received a bachelor's degree in athletic training in 1985. He was a scholar-athlete in cross country and a miler in indoor and outdoor track at CCSU. In 2010, Ryan was named the recipient of the Central Connecticut State University Kaiser Alumni Service Award. He also earned a degree in physical therapy from the University of Connecticut in 1988. Ryan is the recipient of the 2008 Southeast Athletic Trainers Association's Professional Athlete Trainer of the Year award and the Athletic Trainers Association of Florida's 2007 Athlete Trainer of the Year.

An avid fitness enthusiast, Ryan continues to participate in countless challenging races and triathlons. These competitions include six Ironman Triathlons in Hawaii (1994), New Zealand (1996), Canary Island (1998), Brazil (2000), Idaho (2004) and Austria (2009), three Escape from Alcatraz Triathlons, and the 2002 World Championship Duathlon. Other races include the famous Running with the Bulls in Pamplona, Spain, the Run-Up the Empire State Building in New York and the Boston Marathon. Ryan was born in Framingham, Mass. Mike, his wife, Samantha, along with their young son and daughter live in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

SKIP RICHARDSONDIRECTOR, TEAM SECURITY

Skip Richardson oversees administrative matters for the football operations department, including training camp, team travel and security. He was a member of the NFL security task force that was established after September 11, 2001. Richardson also worked with Paul Tagliabue's staff regarding security for Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville.

A veteran of 23 years in law enforcement, Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He still directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and the Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995.

He received a degree in criminology from Florida State University. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League. Richardson in past years has been active in Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida and the Jacksonville Symphony Guild. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security, National Association of Chiefs of Police, Stadium Managers Association and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

BAHATI VANPELT*DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT/YOUTH FOOTBALL

Bahati VanPelt was promoted to Director, Player Development and Youth Football on June 1, 2012. His player development duties include providing assistance in various off-the-field areas, such as continuing education, career internships, employee assistance, professional development, financial education and relocation.

VanPelt is also responsible for coordinating all team life skills programming, as well as the Jaguars rookie club and in-season NFL Rookie Success Program. In 2010, the Jaguars' rookie class won the inaugural NFL Investment Education Challenge. He works closely with retired players as well to provide post-career transition advice and resources once a player has finished his career.

VanPelt also serves as the Jaguars liaison on all youth football programming including, Pop Warner, Punt, Pass and Kick, NFL Flag, middle and high school football, NFL High School Player Development and the Jacksonville Jaguars/Jacksonville Quarterback Club High School Coach of the Week. In May 2012, the Jaguars were recognized as the Pop Warner Little Scholars NFL Team of the Year.

After beginning his career as a communications intern with the Jaguars in 1996, VanPelt was hired full time by the Jaguars in 1998 after working for the Atlanta Falcons and the World Football League the previous season. With the Jaguars, he has also served as a communications assistant (1998-2000), coordinator of youth football (2000) and manager of player relations and youth football (2001-2012).

VanPelt is a member of the National Football League/Wharton Business School Athlete Development Certification Program and has spoken at several NCAA life skill seminars advising student athletes on decision making, leadership and character. He attended Flagler College, where he was graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in communications. He is married (Faythe) and lives in Jacksonville.

TIM WALSHDIRECTOR, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Tim Walsh was named the Jaguars' Director of Football Administration in 2007. He is in his 16th year with the Jaguars organization. He works closely with General Manager Gene Smith, Head Coach Mike Mularkey and General Counsel Sashi Brown. Walsh's responsibilities include managing the Jaguars salary cap, developing the Jaguars strategic planning, crafting contract proposals and parameters, negotiating player contracts, and budgeting and coordinating the Jaguars compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement and NFL Player Personnel rules.

Walsh started his NFL career in 1996 with the NFL Management Council, for which he monitored the league-wide salary cap and analyzed NFL player contracts. Walsh graduated summa cum laude in accountancy from the University of Notre Dame and earned his master's degree in sport management from the University of Richmond. He is a member of the Leadership Jacksonville Class of 2012.

JOHN HILLEBRANDEQUIPMENT MANAGER

John Hillebrand was named head equipment manager for the Jaguars on June 11, 2012. Now in his 19th year in the NFL, Hillebrand spent 18 seasons as assistant equipment manager for the New England Patriots. He originally joined the Patriots on May 23, 1994.

In his current role Hillebrand is responsible for ordering, issuing and maintaining all uniforms and footwear, players' protective equipment and coaches' and support staff apparel. His responsibilities also include ordering and maintaining all field equipment and supervising its transport for home and away games.

Prior to the Patriots, Hillebrand served three years (1991-94) as the assistant athletic equipment manager at Boston College. There his responsibilities included handling the equipment needs for men's hockey, men's and women's soccer, field hockey, women's basketball, baseball, softball and men's and women's lacrosse, in addition to assisting in the needs of all of Boston College's 36 varsity sports.

Hillebrand graduated from Edinboro University in Pennsylvania in 1989 and accepted his first job in the Edinboro athletic department as the head equipment manager in 1990. He was born July 31, 1967. John and his wife, Kathy, live in Jacksonville.

2011 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 • JAGUARS 16, TITANS 14

SEPTEMBER 11, 2011 • EVERBANK FIELD, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

TENNESSEE TITANS (0-1)	0	0	7	7	—	14
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-0)	7	3	3	3	—	16

Riding a pounding rushing attack and a stingy defense the Jaguars opened the season with a 16-14 win over Tennessee. Scoring on two of its first three possessions to take an early 10-0 lead, the Jaguars offense put together four scoring drives overall of 11, 12, 13 and 11 plays and finished with a 39:38 possession time. The defense, meanwhile, turned in a sack on its first play and an interception on its last while forcing Tennessee to punt on its first five possessions and holding Chris Johnson to just 24 rushing yards on the day. Maurice Jones-Drew scored the first points on a 21-yard blast to cap the Jaguars' opening series, which featured nine runs, two passes and two third-down conversions. Josh Scobee kicked the first of his three field goals in the second quarter for a 10-0 halftime advantage before making it 13-0 in the third. Tennessee, which began seven of its 11 possessions at its own 20-yard line, then scored quickly on an 80-yard catch and run from Matt Hasselbeck to Kenny Britt. In the fourth quarter Scobee's 45-yard field goal gave the Jaguars a 16-7 lead, but another Britt touchdown catch narrowed the margin to two at 16-14, the closest of the day, with 3:34 remaining. Matt Turk's 44-yard punt then pinned the Titans at their own three-yard line with 1:45 left and no times out. Hasselbeck's last pass was intercepted by Dwight Lowery to seal the win. Luke McCown made his first start as a Jaguar and was efficient in completing 17 of 24 passes for 175 yards, and Jones-Drew rushed for 97 yards on 24 carries.

NEW YORK JETS (2-0)	9	6	14	3	—	32

Striking quickly on offense and on defense, the New York Jets set the tone early in a 32-3 home win that was sparked by four interceptions by the Jets defense. The Jets scored a touchdown on their first possession and the defense got a sack on its first series to post a 9-0 lead just 4:27 into the game. Josh Scobee hit a 55-yard field goal to make it 9-6 in the first quarter, but that was the end of the Jaguars scoring. Each team had two interceptions in the first half, but the Jaguars could not convert theirs by William Middleton and Rashean Mathis into points. The Jets turned their second pick into a field goal at the end of the second quarter for a 15-3 lead, and in the second half the Jets pulled away with back-to-back interceptions on defense and three straight scoring drives on offense. In all, the Jets defense accounted for 15 points with its sack and 13 points set up by the last three interceptions. Maurice Jones-Drew ran for 88 yards on 18 carries while the Jets' Shonn Greene was held to 49 yards on the ground. Luke McCown made his second straight start at quarterback but he completed just six of 19 passes while being victimized by the four interceptions. Rookie Blaine Gabbert made the first appearance of his NFL career, taking over for the fourth quarter and completing five of his six attempts for 52 yards. The Jaguars managed no red zone drives and crossed the New York 30 just twice on their 14 possessions, while the Jets scored all four times they were inside the 20.

GAME 3 • PANTHERS 16, JAGUARS 10

SEPTEMBER 25, 2011 • BANK OF AMERICA STADIUM, CHARLOTTE, N.C.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-2)	0	10	0	0	—	10
CAROLINA PANTHERS (1-2)	2	3	3	8	—	16

Blaine Gabbert made his first NFL start and got his first touchdown pass, a 36-yarder to Mike Thomas on the final play of the first half which gave the Jaguars a 10-5 lead, but Carolina rallied to score the game-winner with 4:20 left and then held on as the Jaguars' last comeback effort fell short when time ran out. In a game played on a soggy field and with a driving rain, the teams combined for 14 punts and 235 rushing yards. For the second week in a row the Jaguars were sacked for a safety on their first possession. The Panthers added a 35-yard field goal at the start of the second quarter for a 5-0 lead, and Jacksonville responded with Josh Scobee's 53-yarder, marking his second straight game with a field goal from more than 50 yards. Late in the half the Jaguars got the ball at their own 23 with 53 seconds left. Maurice Jones-Drew ran for two yards before breaking a 39-yard run to the Carolina 36-yard line. With six seconds left on the clock, Gabbert threw deep over the middle to Thomas, who caught the ball at the seven and fought his way into the end zone as time expired for the Jaguars' first lead of the game. Following a mishandled punt snap by Matt Turk, the Panthers got the ball at Jacksonville's 38-yard line and moved 24 yards in seven plays to set up Olindo Mare's 32-yard field goal to get within 10-8 late in the third period. Carolina took advantage of good field position again in the fourth quarter, starting at its own 45 and moving 55 yards in five plays with Cam Newton hitting Greg Olsen on a 16-yard scoring strike. The Panthers added a two-point conversion on another Newton-to-Olsen pass and held a 16-10 lead with 4:20 remaining. The Jaguars' final possession began at their own 20 with 1:02 left and no timeouts. Two Gabbert completions and a 24-yard pass interference penalty got the Jaguars to the Carolina 36. Following a replay review with 16 seconds left, the clock ran as the Jaguars managed just one final pass which fell incomplete.

NEW ORLEANS SAINTS (3-1)	7	7	6	3	—	23

The Jaguars trailed by just 14-10 at halftime, but New Orleans dominated the second half with a 20:45 possession time and three field goal drives to pull away for a 23-10 win, finishing with 503 yards in total offense. New Orleans set the tone from the start with one-yard touchdowns capping its first two possessions, the first on a run by Jed Collins and the second on a pass from Drew Brees to Jimmy Graham to finish a 12-play, 96-yard drive after Matt Turk's first punt had pinned the ball at the Saints' four-yard line. The Jaguars then put together their best possession of the day, marching 80 yards in 12 plays to set up Blaine Gabbert's 14-yard touchdown pass to Zach Miller. A Daryl Smith interception gave Jacksonville possession at the New Orleans 13 with 52 seconds left in the first half, but the opportunity to tie the game was stopped by three incomplete passes, forcing a Josh Scobee 31-yard field goal which would end the Jaguars' scoring at 14-10. The Saints' first three possessions of the second half covered nine, 10 and 11 plays and resulted in field goals of 38, 39 and 21 yards to push the lead to 23-10 early in the fourth quarter. The Jaguars then moved deep into Saints territory twice but were stopped on fourth down at the New Orleans 20 and 21-yard lines and again on their final possession. The Saints were held below their 34-point scoring average, but Brees completed 31 of his 44 passes for 351 yards. The Jaguars defense turned in a season-high three sacks along with two interceptions.

GAME 5 • BENGALS 30 JAGUARS 20
OCTOBER 9, 2011 • EVERBANK FIELD, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

CINCINNATI BENGALS (3-2)	7	6	0	17	—	30
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-4)	7	6	0	7	—	20

The Jaguars and Bengals each began the game with a long touchdown drive, and Jacksonville had two more great scoring opportunities in the second quarter, but two field goals from close range proved costly. A Dwight Lowery 30-yard interception return gave the Jaguars first-and-goal at the Cincinnati two-yard line before they were forced to settle for a field goal. The Jaguars' next possession began at midfield and moved to the Bengals' two after a first-and-goal at the five, but once again they were held to a Josh Scobee field goal for a 13-7 lead. The Bengals scored on Andy Dalton's second touchdown pass with 14 seconds remaining in the half to make it 13-13 after Mike Nugent's extra point kick bounced off the right upright. Following eight combined punts by both teams to start the second half, Cincinnati took its first lead at 16-13 on Nugent's 47-yard field goal in the fourth quarter despite gusting winds. Three plays later Blaine Gabbert found a broken coverage in the Cincinnati secondary and hit Jason Hill with a 74-yard catch-and-run touchdown to put Jacksonville back on top, 20-16. After being pinned deep in their own territory by a Cincinnati punt, the Jaguars punted from their own six but the Bengals took over at the 23-yard line following a 22-yard punt and five-yard penalty. Cincinnati methodically moved the 23 yards in seven plays, with Bernard Scott scoring on a two-yard run with 1:58 remaining and a 23-20 lead. The Jaguars' first turnover came with 1:19 left when a third-and-one shotgun snap sailed past Gabbert and Cincinnati recovered. After turning the ball over on downs with seven seconds on the clock, the Bengals scored on the game's final play, a Jaguars pass completion with multiple laterals that ultimately ended up with Gibril Wilson scoring on a 10-yard fumble return.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS (4-2)	7	10	0	0	—	17

The Jaguars fought back from an early 17-0 deficit and had a chance to tie or win in the final minutes before falling to the Steelers 17-13 on the road. Pittsburgh opened with three long scoring drives, registering Rashard Mendenhall and Mike Wallace touchdowns on the first two and a Shaun Suisham field goal on the third for a 17-0 lead just four minutes into the second quarter. On the ensuing possession the Jaguars marched 47 yards to set up Josh Scobee's 46-yard field goal, while the team's five other possessions in the first half ended in punts. At the half the Steelers' dominance included 315 total yards to the Jaguars' 68, a rushing advantage of 134 yards to 58, and a net passing difference of 181 yards to 10. The Jaguars turned the tables after halftime, scoring a touchdown on their first drive to make it a seven-point game and forcing Pittsburgh to punt on all five of its second-half possessions. The lone Jacksonville touchdown came on an 18-yard pass from Blaine Gabbert to Jason Hill in the end zone with 1:46 left in the third quarter, capping a 17-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 9:35 and was extended by a roughing the punter penalty. After three more defensive stops the Jaguars moved to the Pittsburgh 25-yard line, in position for a game-tying touchdown, but a fourth-and-six situation forced a second Scobee field goal for a 17-13 score with 4:17 remaining. Pittsburgh punted a final time, giving Jacksonville possession at its own 23 with 1:01 left and no timeouts. Gabbert led the Jaguars to the Pittsburgh 48-yard line before his Hail Mary pass fell incomplete on the final play. The Jaguars defense held Pittsburgh to 55 total yards in the second half.

BALTIMORE RAVENS (4-2)	0	0	0	7	—	7

In a fierce defensive battle the Jaguars got four field goals from Josh Scobee, including three from beyond 50 yards, while the defense contributed three sacks and two takeaways to spark a 12-7 win on Monday Night Football. Jacksonville built a 6-0 halftime lead on Scobee's two 54-yarders while the defense held Baltimore to eight three-and-out punts and a fumble on nine first-half possessions. At that point the Ravens had 16 yards of total offense including one net passing yard, 15 rushing yards and no first downs as Joe Flacco completed just six of 16 passes. Opening the second half with their longest drive of the night, the Jaguars marched 76 yards in 17 plays to set up Scobee's shortest field goal of the night from 22 yards for a 9-0 lead. Baltimore then missed a field goal and had to punt before scoring the game's only touchdown on a five-yard pass from Flacco to Anquan Boldin, making it 9-7 with 2:02 remaining in the game. The Ravens' ensuing outside kick failed to travel 10 yards and the Jaguars took over at the Baltimore 37. Four plays later Scobee drilled a 51-yarder to make it 12-7 with 1:43 left. Baltimore's final possession lasted just two plays with Drew Coleman's interception sealing the win. The teams combined for 16 punts, 16 penalties, six fumbles and four-of-28 on third down. The Jaguars had 42 rushing attempts and just 24 passing plays. Maurice Jones-Drew rushed 30 times for 105 yards while the Jacksonville defense got sacks from Jeremy Mincey, Daryl Smith and Dwight Lowery and a fumble recovery by Rashean Mathis. Blaine Gabbert got his first win as a starter in his fifth NFL start.

GAME 8 • TEXANS 24, JAGUARS 14

OCTOBER 30, 2011 • RELIANT STADIUM, HOUSTON, TEXAS

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-6)	0	7	0	7	—	14
HOUSTON TEXANS (5-3)	7	0	7	10	—	24

In a division showdown with the AFC South leader, the Jaguars battled on defense but were held to 174 yards on offense to fall, 24-14. Houston scored on its opening possession, marching 80 yards in 12 plays with Matt Schaub running for a two-yard touchdown, while the Jaguars were forced to punt on their first four possessions. The defense set up both Jacksonville touchdowns on the day, with the first coming in the second quarter after a Clint Session sack and forced fumble was returned to the Houston eight-yard line. Blaine Gabbert's five-yard scoring pass to Jason Hill made it 7-7 and that score stood through halftime. Opening the third quarter the Jaguars were forced to punt and Jacoby Jones' 33-yard return to the Jacksonville 44 set up the Texans' second scoring drive, covering the 44 yards in nine plays with Schaub hitting tight end Joel Dreessen from seven yards out to make it 14-7. On the first play of the fourth quarter Gabbert was intercepted for the second time, giving the Houston offense good field position again at the Jaguars' 40. Arian Foster capped the scoring drive with a four-yard run to give Houston a 21-7 lead, but the Jaguars answered with another takeaway setting up another touchdown. Dawan Landry forced a Ben Tate fumble and Dwight Lowery returned the ball 23 yards to the Houston 41, and a penalty advanced the Jaguars starting point to the Houston 26. Seven plays later Maurice Jones-Drew pounded in from two yards out to narrow the score to 21-14 with 5:15 remaining, giving Jacksonville time to score and tie the game. But the Texans responded with a nine-play, 59-yard drive which Neil Rackers finished with a 39-yard field goal to make it 24-14 with just 18 seconds left.

GAME 9 • JAGUARS 17, COLTS 3

NOVEMBER 13, 2011 • LUCAS OIL STADIUM, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (0-10)	0	3	0	0	—	3

A strong performance by the Jacksonville defense, which included a season-high five sacks in addition to three takeaways, sparked a 17-3 divisional road win over the Colts in Indianapolis. Both offenses struggled in the first half, with each being intercepted on its first possession, but the Jaguars scored first on a 44-yard Josh Scobee field goal, his 15th consecutive to start the season, to cap an eight-play drive on Jacksonville's third possession. Indianapolis responded on its ensuing eight-play drive with Adam Vinatieri booting a 42-yard field goal to make it 3-3 at the beginning of the second quarter. After each team punted three times in the quarter Scobee had a chance to post a halftime lead but his 45-yard field goal try was wide right, marking his first miss of the season and leaving a 3-3 halftime score. The Jaguars dominated the third quarter with an 11:36 to 3:24 possession time advantage due to a 16-play, 86-yard drive that took 9:40 and ended with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Blaine Gabbert to Jarett Dillard for Dillard's first career touchdown. In the fourth period the Jaguars defense took over, forcing the Colts into an interception, a fumble and a failed fourth down on Indianapolis' three possessions. Paul Posluszny picked off Curtis Painter's final pass at the Jacksonville 21-yard line to halt a scoring threat. The Colts' next series began at their own 13-yard line and on the third play Jeremy Mincey sacked Dan Orlovsky and forced a fumble, which Tyson Alualu picked up and advanced to the Colts' eight. Three Maurice Jones-Drew runs produced a three-yard touchdown for a 17-3 Jaguars lead with 3:54 remaining. The Colts then drove to the Jacksonville 12-yard line in 10 plays but were stopped on downs. Jones-Drew finished with 114 rushing yards and topped 6,000 rushing yards for his career.

GAME 10 • BROWNS 14, JAGUARS 10

NOVEMBER 20, 2011 • CLEVELAND BROWNS STADIUM, CLEVELAND, OHIO

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-7)	0	7	0	3	—	10
CLEVELAND BROWNS (4-6)	0	7	0	7	—	14

The Jaguars were unable to score a last-second game-winning touchdown despite having their last four plays from inside the Cleveland five-yard line after marching 70 yards in 14 plays in the final 2:49. An even first half ended in a 7-7 tie with each team scoring a touchdown and punting three times. Maurice Jones-Drew ran six yards to cap the Jaguars' second possession, an 18-play, 92-yard series that lasted 9:53. Cleveland responded with an 87-yard drive, capped by Chris Ogbonnaya's one-yard run after a pass interference penalty in the end zone gave Cleveland a first-and-goal at the one. The only turnover of the game was on Cleveland's first possession of the third quarter when Dawan Landry intercepted Colt McCoy at the Jaguar's three-yard line, which happened after the Browns had made a 40-yard field goal but accepted a penalty to continue the drive. The Browns took a 14-7 lead on their next series, however, moving 85 yards in 12 plays with McCoy hitting Joshua Cribbs with a three-yard touchdown pass. The Jaguars' ensuing possession got them within four points at 14-10 on Josh Scobee's 42-yard field goal which capped a 13-play drive. After Cleveland missed a 38-yard field goal attempt the Jaguars had the ball with 2:49 remaining and methodically moved to the Cleveland five with 41 seconds left and one timeout. Jones-Drew ran for three yards and one yard before the Jaguars' final timeout with eight second left. A Blaine Gabbert pass to Jason Hill was incomplete in the end zone, and on the final play Gabbert threw to Mike Thomas but the pass fell incomplete. Ogbonnaya, who was replacing the Browns' top two running backs, ran for 98 yards in the second half to finish with 115 while Jones-Drew was held to 87 yards on 21 carries. Brad Meester tied the Jaguars franchise record, held by Jimmy Smith, by playing in the 171st game of his career.

GAME 11 • TEXANS 20, JAGUARS 13
NOVEMBER 27, 2011 • EVERBANK FIELD, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

HOUSTON TEXANS (8-3)	7	13	0	0	—	20
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-8)	7	3	0	3	—	13

The Jaguars defense scored a touchdown on its opening series of the game but the offense managed just six points in Houston's 20-13 win that eliminated the Jaguars from contention in the division. The teams combined for 19 punts and were just seven of 34 on third down. On the Texans' second play from scrimmage Arian Foster fumbled when hit by Paul Posluszny, and Ashton Youboty, making his first start in only his second game as a Jaguar, scooped the ball and scored from 38 yards out to give Jacksonville a 7-0 lead. Two possessions later Houston evened the score on a one-yard Foster run to cap a 67-yard drive. The Jaguars' best drive of the day came in the second quarter, a 10-play, 77-yard series to the Houston three, but a 21-yard Josh Scobee field goal was the result for a 10-7 lead. Houston then took command of the game with three straight scores. The Texans' first lead followed a 42-yard punt return by Jacoby Jones to the Jacksonville 26, setting up a 20-yard touchdown pass from Matt Lienart to Joel Dreessen. Three plays later Blaine Gabbert was intercepted by Johnathan Joseph, and his 29-yard return set the Texans up at the Jacksonville 34. Houston took advantage with a 53-yard Neil Rackers field goal, and after a Scobee miss from 55 yards Rackers tacked on a 33-yarder to close out the first half with Houston holding a 20-10 lead. The Texans were forced to punt on their next seven possessions as T.J. Yates took over for the injured Leinart, but Jacksonville was forced to punt on its next five. The Jaguars narrowed the score to 20-13 with 4:19 left in the fourth quarter on Scobee's 33-yard field goal as Luke McCown replaced Gabbert for the last two possessions. On their final series the Jaguars advanced to the Houston 40 on McCown's 25-yard completion to Mercedes Lewis on third-and-27, but McCown's fourth-down pass to Mike Thomas fell incomplete.

DECEMBER 5, 2011 • EVERBANK FIELD, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (5-7)	10	14	7	7	—	38
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-9)	0	14	0	0	—	14

In their first game under interim head coach Mel Tucker the Jaguars battled back from an early 10-0 deficit to take a 14-10 second-quarter lead, but San Diego took over with three consecutive touchdown drives to post a 38-14 win. The Chargers scored on their first two possessions and five of their first six, with Mike Tolbert's 13-yard run capping the first, an 11-play, 70-yard drive. A 29-yard Nick Novak field goal made it 10-0 in the first quarter before the Jaguars put together back-to-back touchdown drives in the second. Blaine Gabbert threw nine yards to Maurice Jones-Drew for the Jaguars' first score to cap a 12-play, 79-yard drive, and followed that with a five-yard touchdown pass to Cecil Shorts to finish a 70-yard drive. At that point the Jaguars led 14-10 with just 2:32 left in the first half, but San Diego scored twice within 1:10 to take a 24-14 halftime lead. A 22-yard touchdown pass from Philip Rivers to Vincent Brown was followed by a Gabbert interception with 53 seconds left in the first half. Three plays later Rivers hit Vincent Jackson with a 35-yard scoring pass. In the second half San Diego kept going, scoring on the first possession when Rivers hit Malcolm Floyd with a 52-yard bomb to finish an 80-yard drive. The Chargers' final score was set up by a bad snap from field goal formation, which gave San Diego possession at the Jacksonville 31. The next play was Rivers' third touchdown pass of the night, a 31-yarder to Ryan Mathews. The Jaguars were playing their second Monday night game of the season and the first of three games scheduled over ten days. Maurice Jones-Drew finished with 97 rushing yards and 188 combined yards. His touchdown was the 69th of his career, tying Jimmy Smith for second in team history behind Fred Taylor's team-record 70.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS (4-9)	7	7	0	0	—	14

A team-record seven takeaways and career-best four touchdowns by Maurice Jones-Drew sparked a come-from-behind 41-14 win over Tampa Bay to snap a three-game losing streak and give interim head coach Mel Tucker his first victory. Jones-Drew also broke Fred Taylor's team record for career touchdowns, finishing the day with 73 to top Taylor's long-standing mark of 70. The Jaguars fell behind 14-0 early on a LeGarrette Blount one-yard run and a Josh Freeman 13-yard run, which gave the Buccaneers a 14-0 lead 51 seconds into the second quarter. The Jaguars took over from there, scoring four touchdowns in the second quarter with one each by special teams and the defense and two on offense. Montell Owens forced Preston Parker to fumble a punt at the Tampa Bay 20, and Colin Cloherty scooped the ball at the eight and scored for the first touchown. A 62-yard completion from Blaine Gabbert to Mercedes Lewis on the next series set up the Jaguars at the Tampa Bay two-yard line, and Jones-Drew scored on a one-yard run. The defense scored next when Daryl Smith sacked Freeman at the Tampa Bay one and forced a fumble, which Nate Collins recovered in the end zone. Gabbert closed the quarter with a five-yard touchdown pass to Jones-Drew to make it 28-14 at the half. The Jaguars got two more takeaways in the third quarter — a Paul Posluszny interception and a Jeremy Mincey fumble recovery — before scoring twice more in the fourth with Jones-Drew catching another five-yard touchdown pass and running for another one-yard touchdown. Rookie cornerback Kevin Rutland then got the seventh takeaway to close out the game. The Jaguars posted season-highs in points, offensive yards and passing yards, while Jones-Drew extended his NFL rushing lead to 50 yards through 13 games.

GAME 14 • FALCONS 41, JAGUARS 14
DECEMBER 15, 2011 • GEORGIA DOME, ATLANTA, GA.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-10)	0	0	7	7	—	14
ATLANTA FALCONS (9-5)	10	17	14	0	—	41

Playing for the third time in 11 days, the Jaguars fell behind early for the third straight game but were unable to overcome four turnovers in a 41-14 loss in Atlanta. The Falcons scored on their first two possessions and five of seven in the first half, while Jacksonville's five first-half possessions resulted in four punts and a lost fumble. Matt Ryan threw touchdown passes of 29 yards to Julio Jones and six yards to Roddy White, while Michael Turner scored on a five-yard run and Matt Bryant kicked field goals of 33 and 31 yards for a 27-0 halftime lead as Atlanta scored on its first four red zone drives. In the second half Atlanta added two more quick touchdowns, with Corey Peters taking a Blaine Gabbert fumble 13 yards for a score and then Ryan hitting White with a 29-yard touchdown pass to make it 41-0 in the middle of the third quarter. White finished with 10 receptions for 135 yards and two touchdowns. The Jaguars finally scored in the third quarter when Kassim Osgood blocked a Matt Boshier punt and backup tight end Zach Potter picked up the ball and ran 46 yards to the end zone. Jacksonville scored on its final possession when Gabbert threw 16 yard to Chastin West with 59 seconds remaining. The Jaguars lost a season-high three fumbles, with one on a punt return by Jarrett Dillard and two on sacks of Gabbert, which the Falcons turned into 17 points. Maurice Jones-Drew was the Jaguars' lone bright spot as he rushed for 112 yards on 17 carries. The 41 points were the most allowed by Jacksonville all season, while the team posted season-lows with just 46 offensive plays and a possession time of 21:29. Shahid Khan was on hand for his first game following the NFL owners' unanimous vote the day before to approve his purchase of the team.

2011 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 15 • TITANS 23, JAGUARS 17
DECEMBER 24, 2011 • LP FIELD, NASHVILLE, TENN.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (4-11)	7	3	0	7	—	17
TENNESSEE TITANS (8-7)	10	7	3	3	—	23

Maurice Jones-Drew pounded out 103 rushing yards on 24 carries but the Titans' Matt Hasselbeck attacked a depleted Jaguars secondary with 342 net passing yards, the most allowed by the Jacksonville defense all season, including 169 to tight end Jared Cook en route to a 23-17 Tennessee win. The Titans scored on three consecutive possessions in the first half with a 51-yard Rob Bironas field goal, a 55-yard touchdown pass from Hasselbeck to Cook, and a Jamie Harper one-yard run. Jones-Drew's 10-yard touchdown run at the end of the first quarter made it 10-7 before Harper's score, and Josh Scobee's 39-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter made it 17-10 at halftime. Bironas booted another 51-yard field goal in the third quarter to extend Tennessee's lead to 20-10, and his 35-yarder in the fourth made it 23-10. The Jaguars defense got two turnovers in the fourth quarter, the first an interception by Morgan Trent which he returned to the Tennessee 18-yard line. But three plays later Blaine Gabbert's pass into the end zone was tipped and intercepted to thwart a scoring opportunity. On the Titans' next series C.J. Mosley forced a fumble which Dawan Landry recovered at the Tennessee 35. Gabbert then marched the offense 10 plays and narrowed the score to 23-17 on Greg Jones' one-yard touchdown run with 3:41 remaining. Needing a stop to get the ball back, the Jaguars used all three timeouts but Cook made a 29-yard reception on third-and-five to extend the Titan's final possession and run out the clock. Jones-Drew, who scored his 62nd career rushing touchdown to tie Fred Taylor's team record, extended his NFL rushing lead to 128 yards ahead of LeSean McCoy going into the season's final weekend.

GAME 16 • JAGUARS 19, COLTS 13
JANUARY 1, 2012 • EVERBANK FIELD, JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (2-14)	0	3	3	7	—	13
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (5-11)	7	3	6	3	—	19

Maurice Jones-Drew saved his best for last, rushing for a season-high 169 yards to lead a 19-13 win vs. Indianapolis, claiming the NFL rushing title in the process while also breaking the team record for single season rushing yards. The Jaguars took command early, driving on their first possession to the Colts' one-yard line in 12 plays before being stopped on fourth down. After a three-and-out the Jaguars offense was back on the field and this time Blaine Gabbert finished the drive with a 23-yard touchdown pass to Chastin West. From there Josh Scobee accounted for the rest of Jacksonville's points by making all four of his field goal tries from 25, 32, 47 and 39 yards. The Jaguars held a 19-6 lead with 6:30 left in the game, but Indianapolis moved 82 yards on seven completions by Dan Orlovsky to make it 19-13 on Austin Collie's 12-yard touchdown catch with 3:22 remaining. The Jaguars then picked up two first downs on Jones-Drew runs to expire the clock. Jones-Drew, who had 84 rushing yards in the first half and 85 in the second, finished with 1,606 yards for the season and a 242-yard cushion over Baltimore's Ray Rice. Jones-Drew broke Fred Taylor's franchise record for rushing yards in a season on his first carry of the second half, a 56-yard burst that was his longest run since 2009. Jeremy Mincey turned in two-and-a-half sacks for the second time in two games vs. Indianapolis, adding two forced fumbles and finishing the season with a team-leading eight sacks, the most by a Jaguar since 2006. Mel Tucker finished with a 2-3 record as interim head coach. Wayne and Delores Weaver, witnessing their final game as Jaguars owners, were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime.

September 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead, the Jaguars rallied in the second half, scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard completions from Mark Brunell and a Mike Hollis field goal, to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

November 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led 25-10 going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell, the defense recovered a fumble at the Ravens' 19-yard line. Brunell found Willie Jackson six plays later, and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss, but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled, and Jacksonville drove down the field, with Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

October 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half, but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 fourth-quarter lead. After a Mark Brunell TD pass to Pete Mitchell, the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored on a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from Kordell Stewart to Jerome Bettis.

October 29, 2000 — Jacksonville 23, at Dallas 17

The Jaguars ended a five-game losing streak with a 23-17 overtime road victory over the Cowboys, with Alvis Whitted scoring on a 37-yard pass from Mark Brunell on the first series of overtime for his second touchdown of the game. Brunell threw for three TDs and tied a team record for passing accuracy, as he completed 20 of 24 passes. Kyle Brady caught 10 of those passes for 134 yards, as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week.

November 14, 2004 — at Jacksonville 23, Detroit 17

The Jaguars continued their dramatic play with a 23-17 overtime win over the Detroit Lions at ALLTEL Stadium. David Garrard started his first game since 2002 in place of injured Byron Leftwich and led the team with 198 yards passing and two touchdowns. Jimmy Smith caught the game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from Garrard in overtime. The Lions erased a 17-3 fourth-quarter lead with two Eddie Drummond touchdown returns.

September 25, 2005 — Jacksonville 26, at New York Jets 20

The Jaguars defeated the New York Jets 26-20 on a game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from Byron Leftwich to Jimmy Smith at the Meadowlands. Both teams began the overtime with interceptions and after forcing the Jets to punt on their third drive, Leftwich threw 36 yards for the game-winner.

October 16, 2005 — Jacksonville 23, at Pittsburgh 17

The Jaguars defeated the Steelers 23-17 in Pittsburgh on a dramatic 41-yard interception return for a touchdown by Rashean Mathis in overtime. The Steelers won the toss and Quincy Morgan returned the kickoff 74 yards. On third down Maddox fumbled the snap and Reggie Hayward recovered the ball. The Jaguars stalled on offense and Chris Hanson recorded his team record-tying ninth punt of the game. Two plays later Mathis ended the game with his interception.

October 1, 2006 — at Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville erased a 10-point deficit in the fourth quarter to force overtime, but Washington scored on the opening possession of the extra period on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Santana Moss from Mark Brunell to claim a 36-30 win at FedExField.

September 28, 2008 — at Jacksonville 30, Houston 27

The Jaguars and Texans both scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to force overtime, but the Jaguars won the toss and David Garrard drove the Jaguars 51 yards in six plays and Josh Scobee connected on a 37-yard field goal for the game winner.

October 18, 2009 — at Jacksonville 23, St. Louis 20

The Jaguars won the toss in overtime and never gave the football up in a 23-20 victory over the Rams. Starting from the 20-yard line, David Garrard engineered a 13 play, 62-yard drive, which included a mixture of passes and runs to set up the 36-yard game-winning field goal by Josh Scobee.

December 26, 2010 — Washington 20, at Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars got the ball first, but they began at their own 11 following a miscue on the kickoff return. On third down David Garrard's pass was intercepted by Kevin Barnes at Jacksonville's 22, and three plays later Graham Gano hit the game-winner from 31 yards.

1996 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF • JAGUARS 30, BILLS 27
DECEMBER 28, 1996, RICH STADIUM

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (10-7)	10	7	3	10	—	30
BUFFALO BILLS (10-7)	14	3	3	7	—	27

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown, and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead, but Clyde Simmons intercepted Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Mark Brunell found Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score, and Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (13-5)	7	6	0	7	—	20

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when punter Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (11-7)	0	13	7	10	—	30
DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	12	0	0	15	—	27

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0, the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions, all on drives of 50 yards and longer, taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1984. Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards, and Mark Brunell threw TD passes to Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards, first downs and time of possession.

DENVER BRONCOS (13-4)	14	7	0	21	—	42

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter, however the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

MIAMI DOLPHINS (10-8)	0	7	0	0	—	7
JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-2)	24	17	14	7	—	62

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of Miami, in what would be Dan Marino's final game. The 62 points scored were the second-most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game, and the 55-point margin of victory was the second-largest in NFL postseason history. Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest in NFL postseason history. The 41 points in the first half also tied the NFL post-season record. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game, on a touchdown catch by Alvis Whitted and a five-yard run by Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the Jaguars' most ever.

JANUARY 10, 1999, GIANTS STADIUM

NEW YORK JETS (13-4)	7	10	14	3	—	34

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-3)	7	7	0	0	—	14

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end, as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Mark Brunell. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by Yancey Thigpen. Then the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard TD run by James Stewart. But Reggie Barlow fumbled a punt that was recovered by the Titans and converted into a 34-yard field goal. The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell, and on the free kick Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (11-6)	0	7	14	7	—	28

The Jaguars returned to the postseason for the first time since 1999 but saw their season end at New England with a 28-3 loss to the Patriots. The first quarter ended scoreless as both teams punted on their first two possessions. The Jaguars stopped the Patriots on downs on fourth-and-10 to end the quarter. The Patriots began the scoring with a six-play, 37-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Troy Brown. The Jaguars next drive was thwarted after 33 yards when Alvin Pearman lost a fumble at the Patriots' 44-yard line. After two punts, the Jaguars scored their only points on a Josh Scobee 36-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half. The Patriots erupted with back-to-back touchdown drives to start the second half. Each drive ended with Brady touchdown passes, the first to David Givens for three yards and the second for 63 yards to Benjamin Watson. On the Jaguars ensuing drive, Byron Leftwich was intercepted on fourth-and-five by Asante Samuel, who returned the pick 73 yards for a touchdown. David Garrard replaced Leftwich for the final three drives which ended with a 41-yard missed field goal and two turnovers on downs.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-5)	7	14	7	3	—	31
PITTSBURGH STEELERS (10-7)	7	0	3	19	—	29

The Jaguars got their first playoff win since the 1999 season and their first under head coach Jack Del Rio with a 31-29 victory, marking the first team to win twice in Pittsburgh in one season. The Jaguars held an 18-point lead at the start of the fourth quarter but trailed by one with six minutes to play. The Jaguars forced the Steelers to punt and David Garrard ran for 32 yards on fourth-and-two with less than two minutes remaining. Four plays later Josh Scobee hit the game-winning field goal from 25 yards. Bobby McCray sacked Ben Roethlisberger on the Steelers' next play and forced a fumble that was recovered by Derek Landri to seal the win.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (12-6)	7	7	3	3	—	20
NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (17-0)	7	7	14	3	—	31

The Jaguars ended their playoff run with a 31-20 loss to the Patriots at Gillette Stadium. The undefeated Patriots improved to 17-0 with the win. The Jaguars finished the first half with a 14-14 tie, but were outscored 14-3 in the third quarter by the Patriots. David Garrard led the Jaguars with two touchdowns but two costly drops in the endzone in the second half led to two Jaguars field goal.

RADIO BROADCASTERS

Brian Sexton and former Jaguars defensive end Jeff Lageman are in their tenth season together calling all Jaguars games on WOKV AM & FM (690, 106.5).

Sexton, 42, called every game in the Jaguars' first 17 seasons and is one of just a handful of observers who have witnessed every Jaguars game played. Sexton anchors the Jaguars Radio Network's coverage on game day and is also the host of 'The Mike Mularkey Show' on Mondays and 'Jaguars This Week' on Wednesdays on WOKV. He also hosts 'The Mike Mularkey Show' and 'The Coggin Pregame Show' on Sunday mornings prior to kickoff on WTEV-TV, CBS 47.

Lageman, 44 played for the Jaguars from 1995 to '98 and was the team's first captain. He started 37 of 40 games played in the Jaguars' first four seasons, making 175 tackles and 12.5 sacks. In 10 NFL seasons, including his first six with the New York Jets, Lageman started 118 of 122 games played. He was a first-round draft choice of the Jets in 1989, the 14th player selected overall. After his retirement he joined the Jaguars' preseason TV booth as color analyst for the 1999 to 2002 preseasons. He is a co-host of the 'Jaguars This Week' radio show along with Sexton and Tony Boselli on Wednesday nights on WOKV. He also serves as co-host of 'Jaguars All Access' on WTEV, CBS-47.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

The Jaguars' preseason games in 2012 will be telecast locally in Jacksonville on WTEV-TV, CBS 47.

Veteran NFL play-by-play men Kevin Harlan and Kevin Kugler will split the play-by-play duties in 2012. Harlan calls NFL games for CBS Sports, and Kugler calls NFL games for Westwood One/Dial Global Radio. Former Jaguars Pro Bowl tackle Tony Boselli returns for his seventh tour as the team's preseason color analyst.

Boselli was the first draft pick of the Jaguars and played in 91 games in his seven seasons in Jacksonville. He made five consecutive Pro Bowl starts and was the first inductee into the team's 'Pride of the Jaguars.'

THE PRIDE OF THE JAGUARS

TONY BOSELLI - 1995-2001

Tony Boselli, the Jacksonville Jaguars' first-ever college draft choice, was the first member of the Jaguars franchise to be honored in The Pride of the Jaguars on October 8, 2006.

"Tony Boselli was the original Jaguar, and we are excited to recognize him," said Jaguars former owner Wayne Weaver. "We are proud of Tony's contributions on the field for this organization, and we're proud of his contributions off the field for this community. We welcome the opportunity to have Jaguars fans thank Tony for what he has meant to Jacksonville and the Jaguars."

"The seven years I spent in Jacksonville as a member of the Jaguars team were truly memorable. I also would like to thank all the Jaguars fans who made us feel so welcome when we first arrived in Jacksonville, and now that we have returned," Boselli said.

Boselli was the second player drafted overall in the 1995 college draft following an All-America career at Southern California. He started a then-team-record 90 of the 91 Jaguars games in which he played from 1995-2001 and was named to the Pro Bowl five times.

Widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, Boselli allowed only 15.5 sacks in seven seasons and was named second team on the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

WAYNE AND DELORES WEAVER - 1993-2011

Wayne and Delores Weaver were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime of their final game as owners of the team on January 1, 2012, becoming only the second and third inductees.

Three days later their ownership of the Jaguars was transferred to Shahid Khan, ending an ownership run that began when the franchise was awarded on November 30, 1993.

During the 17 seasons of the Weavers' ownership the Jaguars were 138-134 in the regular season and 142-140 including postseason, with six playoff berths and two division titles. The Weavers were on hand for every game during that span – 352 total including 69 preseason, 272 regular season and 11 postseason games – and twenty Jaguars players were named to the Pro Bowl.

From 1995-2011 the Weavers, through the Weaver Family Foundation, contributed more than $22.6 million to Jacksonville agencies and organizations. The Jaguars Foundation also awarded more than $14.8 million in grants to area non-profit agencies during that time.

Wayne Weaver served on four NFL committees: Business Ventures, Investment, Finance and Compensation. Delores Weaver also served on two committees: NFL Charities and NFL Giving.

FRED TAYLOR - 1998-2008

The Jaguars will honor record-setting running back Fred Taylor this season by inducting him into the Pride of the Jaguars on September 30 when the Jaguars host the Cincinnati Bengals. Taylor will become the fourth person, and only the second player, in team history inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars.

"While I am new to Jacksonville and the Jaguars, I fully understand that Fred Taylor is a Jaguars icon and one of the greatest Jaguars players ever," Jaguars Owner Shahid Khan said in making the announcement on June 7.

"Fred has earned his place in the Pride of the Jaguars, both with his record-setting performances on the field as well as with his involvement in the Jacksonville community throughout his career. That's what I hear from Jaguars fans, and that's what I've personally seen as well. There are a lot of reasons that Fred remains one of the most popular players to wear the Jaguars uniform, and I'm pleased to announce that we will recognize him this fall."

Taylor played for the Jaguars for 11 seasons, from 1998-2008, after being drafted ninth overall in the first round of the 1998 draft. Following two seasons with the New England Patriots he returned to Jacksonville to retire in a ceremony at EverBank Field on Sept. 2, 2011.

Taylor ranks as the Jaguars' record-holder in many categories including career rushing yards, yards from scrimmage and all-purpose yards. He rushed for 100 yards in a game 48 times, another Jaguars record.

Taylor ranks as the 15th-leading rusher in NFL history, with 11,695 career rushing yards, and he became the 21st player in NFL history to rush for 10,000 yards in his career. In 2007 he was finally recognized with one long-overdue honor – his selection to the Pro Bowl.

In seven of his 11 seasons in Jacksonville Taylor rushed for more than 1,000 yards. He's one of only three players – along with Brad Meester and Jimmy Smith – to play 11 seasons in a Jaguars uniform.

The home of the Jaguars got a new name on the eve of the 2010 training camp when EverBank and the Jaguars introduced EverBank Field on July 27. One of the nation's largest privately-held bank holding companies, EverBank employs more than 2,200 workers and is headquartered in Jacksonville. The partnership included a five-year naming rights agreement.

On August 18, 1995, when the Jacksonville Jaguars played their first home preseason game in their new stadium, it marked the first time in sports history that an expansion team had played its first home game in its inaugural season in a new stadium or arena. Not only that, but it was built faster than any major-league stadium had ever been built in North America.

In the short period of 19 1/2 months, the old Gator Bowl was demolished and a new stadium arose on the shores of the St. Johns River. And, very quickly, it was called the best stadium in the country. Just before the Jaguars kicked off their first regular-season game on September 3, 1995, NBC broadcaster Don Criqui said, "There isn't a better football facility in America." In its 10th year of operation, the stadium was the host site of Super Bowl XXXIX, the biggest single-day sporting event in the world.

The stadium underwent a $63 million renovation in preparation for Super Bowl XXXIX. Among the additions were an 800-seat Terrace Suite, a 25,000-square-foot sports bar called the Bud Light Zone, a 20,000-square-foot Sky Patio, 20 new escalators and four new elevators. A new secure perimeter fence was also installed around the stadium, along with two new state-of-the-art scoreboards and renovations to the clubs and suites.

The practice fields that were used from 1995 through 2003 were converted into a 400,000-square-foot entertainment zone adjacent to the stadium, known as the Pepsi Plaza. For Jaguars game days, this area includes tailgate cabanas for pregame hospitality, an interactive game area, and a stage for pregame and postgame entertainment.

EverBank Field signature features include the two Touchdown Clubs, which are located on the East and West sides of the stadium. The Touchdown Clubs and all 11,200 club seats are located at midfield, rather than being spread out horizontally through the stadium. Each Club provides more than 70,000 square feet of air-conditioned comfort with a variety of food and beverage selections. In all, 75 percent of the seats in EverBank are located on the sides, with just 25 percent behind the end zones.

EverBank Field seats 67,246, but additional temporary seats can be added behind the South End Zone — expanding the capacity to well over 82,000 — for the annual Florida-Georgia game and Super Bowl XXXIX.

JAGUARS CARAVAN

The Jaguars launched the first-ever Jaguars Caravan in June of 2012, a new initiative to generate excitement and recruit fans for the Jaguars in cities across Northeast and Central Florida and Southeast Georgia. The Jaguars Caravan visited seven different cities to engage with the team's regional fans.

Players, coaches, ROAR cheerleaders and other special guests all traveled in the Jaguars RV. At each stop, the group signed autographs for their fans amidst a festival, rally-like, family-friendly atmosphere with music, food, interactive and inflatable games and drawings for prizes from the Jaguars and local vendors. All Jaguars Caravans were free and open to the public.

The Jaguars Caravans made stops in Brunswick (Ga.) Palm Coast, Volusia County, Gainesville, Savannah (Ga.), Waycross (Ga.) and Valdosta (Ga.).

THE ROAR

The ROAR is an integral part of Jaguars entertainment during all home games. Under the direction of manager Christy Stechman Zynda, these professional cheerleaders captivate Jaguars fans with their explosive, high-energy routines. When not on the playing field, members of The ROAR serve as good-will ambassadors for the Jaguars by participating in various community and charitable events nationally and internationally. These leading ladies also spend time entertaining our United States troops all over the world. Follow The ROAR of the Jaguars on Facebook and on Twitter: @ROARoftheJags.

JAXSON DE VILLE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 17th season

HEIGHT: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

WEIGHT: 403

BIRTH DATE: Not sure, but he celebrates each day as if it's EVERYONE'S birthday. His birthplace is Jacksonville (where else would a cat have teal spots?)

HOW ACQUIRED: Was a stray cat found by Wayne Weaver during the building of EverBank Field.

FIRST APPEARANCE: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

COLLEGE: Denied admission due to size, but got his MBA from an online college, which he uses quite often when he wants to sound important.

SEASON: Has never seen action in an NFL-sanctioned game ... Has played in several halftime games against some very tough Pop Warner teams (9- and 10-year olds) and has done quite well ... Head coach Mike Mularkey said he looks forward to "putting Jaxson through some workouts" ... (Coach was with teh Steelers in the late-90s adn remembers Jaxson quite well) ... The league still refuses to make bigger helmets so he can play ... Due to that he remains a starter at his All-Pro position, "Left Out!"

STATS: Completed his 16th straight season as "The Self-Proclaimed GREATEST MASCOT TO EVER LIVE!" ...does any other stat matter?

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials are not issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Independent web sites cannot be credentialed. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Dan Edwards, Senior Vice President, Communications, Jacksonville Jaguars, One EverBank Field Drive, Jacksonville, FL 32202, or by e-mail to edwardsd@jaguars.nfl.com or by fax at (904) 633-6055. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Parking in lots surrounding the stadium is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for media parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game days. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in the TV truck compound near Gate 1, and a parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL CALL: The media entrance at the stadium is Gate 1, at the southwest corner of the stadium. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission to the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the Media Will-Call window at Gate 1. The Media Will-Call window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the Will-Call window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is strictly limited to photographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers will be issued an NFL identification vest and must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. The photographers' check-in location is near the media entrance in the service hallway.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKERROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Jaguars' interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. Jaguars head coach Mike Mularkey conducts his postgame news conference in the team meeting room. The visiting head coach is available in a room off the visitors' locker room.

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is available to working media during business hours throughout the week. High speed internet access, phones, Jaguars up-dates, transcripts, NFL news releases and other information is provided.

MIKE MULARKEY INTERVIEWS: Head coach Mike Mularkey conducts his weekly news conferences on Mondays and Wednesdays in the media workroom. Specific interview requests for Coach Mularkey and the assistant coaches must be made through the Jaguars communications department.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Jaguars locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Players are normally available on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Jaguars communications department.

MEDIA WEBSITE: The Jaguars' media website can be accessed on the worldwide web at: www.jaguars.com/pr and on the NFL's Web Site at: www.nfl.com. Daily updates, transcripts, injury reports and other information is posted as well. First-time registration is required.
